DA's Own Practice Is 'Considerable' Survey Indicates

By Dick Osborn

What kind of private law practice does the Contra Costa County District Attorney have?

Many interested residents found themselves asking this question recently, but an answer was difficult to find.

However, The Sun learned this week that District Attorney Francis Collins handled, personally, during the period between January 1, 1957, and December 31, 1957, 52 civil cases for the plaintiff and five civil cases for the defendant in Superior Court—a total of 57 cases.

In addition, during the 15 month period between January 1, 1957 and March 24 of this year, he personally handled 40 probate cases in Superior Court.

How does this private law practice compare with some of the leading law firms in the county?

Here are some comparisons for the same periods listed above:

	Total Civil Cases	Probate Cases
Edmund Barnett	35	18
Bernheim, Sugarman & Gilbert	44	2
Bray, Baldwain & Ogden	66	29
Fenstermacher	50	10
Hoey, Hoey, Hall & Conti	126	44
Marcollo and Canalorra	42	16
Marcus and Bradbard	33	16
John Nejedly	22	5
Carl Noecker	13	2
Vernon Patterson	21	4
Tinning & DeLap	83	55
Francis Collins (repeat)	57	40

(Some of this data was published incorrectly in last week's Sun.)

Collins was appointed district attorney in 1945 and has not been opposed for reelection until this year. John Nejedly, Walnut Creek city attorney, is opposing him on the June ballot.

Where did these private cases come from and what do they mean in income?

It is impossible to tell what the fee is on a civil case, because that fee is set by the attorney, depending upon the case.

In the case of probate, the fee is set by law.

A probate case is called to prove a will of a person who has deceased. The attorney then administers the will of the person who has died to determine legal heirs.

In many cases there is no litigation involved, but the will may be contested by parties who feel the will is unjust. In cases of litigation, the attorney is entitled to extraordinary fees as well as the statutory fees set by law.

The statuatory fees as listed in the probate code of the State are as follows:

Seven per cent of the total estate for the first $1000; four per cent of the total of the estate for the next $9000; three per cent of th total estate for the next $40,000; two per cent of the total estate for the next $100,000 and 1½ per cent for all above $500,000.

For example a probate of a will without extraordinary fees for a $10,000 estate woudl be $430; $20,000 estate would draw $730 in fees, etc.

The Sun was informed that of the 57 civil cases handled by Collins, 27 of these were divorces and three annulments.

Where do these cases come from?

Collins has established a small, private law office in Crockett. The major question is, "How much of Collin's practice is a result of his official position as district attorney?"

These and other questions remain unanswered by Collins, who refuses to make a statement. (See other story this page.)

The 1956-57 Contra Costa Grand Jury stated:

"In connection with the study of the District Attorney's Office, the committee heard expressions of concern from a great many quarters with respect to the policy of the District Attorney of maintaining a private law practice and of his permitting his deputies to have private law practices.

"A variety of criticisms of this practice were voiced including the following:

1. Possibility of questionable legal solicitations. Citizens who seek the district attorney's assistance may wind up as clients of a deputy. When a case does not come within the county's jurisdiction it is possible for the deputy to solicit the case for his private practice."

Observers noted that what is sauce for the goose is also sauce for the gander, and that District Attorney Francis Collins could very well obtain a good percentage of his private practice in this manner.

It was also noted that running a law business is a time consuming operation, and that appearing in court and processing the number of cases handled by Collins during the period mentioned was a full-time job in itself.

It is well known that Collins has not appeared in court to prosecute a case for the county in years.

As far as The Sun can ascertain, Collins has never appeared in court to TRY a case for the county.

On the other hand, he has appeared in Superior Court nearly every week for years in the pursuit of his own private practice.

Governor Goodwin Knight called this practice . . . A glaring example of an official who draws a county salary and has a full blown law practice. I am attempting to discourage private practice because the office holder has an unfair advantage over his competitors."

Knight made this statement in vetoing a pay increase for Collins in 1955. The salary was later increased to $15,000 per year (plus certain expenses), starting this January.

Local attorneys were unable to venture a guess as to the magnitude of the private practice of District Attorney Francis Collins, but they admitted that considering the number of cases that he has brought to court that it is "considerable."

Phones Busy, But DA Collins Just Doesn't Answer . .

The Sun tried to reach District Attorney Francis Collins by phone and message this week, in order to give him the opportuntiy to present his statements concerning his private practice, but the efforts were fruitless.

A person to person call was placed with the operator Monday at 1 p.m. The operator was given three phone numbers where Collins could be reached —Martinez, Richmond and Crockett, and she tried each number every hour, also leaving messages at each office for Collins.

Collins was unavailable, and he did not return the calls, which were cancelled at 5 p.m.

A similar series of calls was started at 9:45 Tuesday morning and continued through Tuesday, but there was no response.

A deputy district attorney was informed that The Sun was trying to reach Collins. The deputy commented, "He knows you're trying to reach him, but he won't answer the calls."

Interest High In Education, Ainsworth Says

"Comments made by parents attending the Open Houses at Del Rey, Glorietta, Orinda and Pine Grove schools this week confirmed unmistakably that Orindans share the intensified interest evidenced nationally now in our public schools," J. Gordon Ainsworth, candidate for the Orinda Union School District Board of Trustees, declared today.

"It seems obvious from comments made that there is a great need for improved communications between parents and the Board of Trustees — a two-way flow of information," Ainsworth said.

"The board needs to know more about what the parents who pay the bill really want. The parents, on the other hand, would be aided by information to help them better understand what they can afford in education — what they may expect with a given tax level," Ainsworth noted.

The candidate recommended that the school administration and the Board of Trustees take the leadership in developing a more adequate exchange of information to encourage more active participation of parents in achieving the

PLEASE REPLY TO Martinez

Mr. Carl Little
Pressmen's Local 432
1912 Nicollette Court
Martinez, California

Dear Dink:

As a practicing lawyer I am very much interested in the quality of the judges of the Superior Court of our County. I am convinced that the Republican-appointed incumbent, Thomas F. Fraga, will not be a good judge. In my opinion he is biased, with little understanding of the problems of the people, is not a good student of the law and simply does not have judicial stature.

So deep is my feeling in this regard that I have asked the Presiding Judge never to set before him a case in which my firm is the attorney of record. Indeed, I have exercised the right to challenge a judge, given by the last Legislature, in one of the cases I have had before him in his brief tenure in office.

Among the lawyers of the County I am not alone in my opinion of Judge Fraga. Thirty-nine lawyers in the County, including nearly all lawyers who have labor unions as clients, sent a petition to Governor Knight urging him to appoint any other aspirant to the Superior Court rather than the one he ultimately chose. It is unprecedented for more than a third of the bar to oppose an appointment in advance.

On the other hand, I have known Thomas F. McBride ever since I started practicing law. I consider him completely honest and extremely able. He will be, I know, fair and impartial and he does possess, in my opinion, an excellent judicial temperament. Mr. McBride is from a trade union family, has been active in the Democratic Party and I know is a believer in the rights of labor to organize and bargain collectively.

I am hopeful that Labor will rally to Mr. McBride's support. I am enclosing a number of blank cards to form a Labor Committee for McBride for Superior Court Judge, which I hope you and some of the active members of your union will sign and return to me in the self-addressed and stamped envelope enclosed herewith.

Sincerely and fraternally,

Bob

THIS IS THE LETTER mailed by Attorney Robert Condon to union officials throughout the county. Condon stated that he "sent about 20 of them out" (see separate story.) Condon when asked if he cared to comment, said that the letter could speak for itself. Similar letters, signed by supervisors, past and incumbent, have been mailed to county election workers and county employees.

'Old Guard' Turns Out Letters to Aid McBride Case

An organized campaign by "county political powers" to defeat incumbent Thomas Fraga as Superior Court Judge and to elect Assistant District Attorney Thomas McBride became apparent this week as a series of letters were mailed to county employees and election workers.

The letters were all signed by incumbent or past members of the Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors.

It is obvious to political observers that established county forces are moving quietly but powerfully behind the scenes to see that McBride gets elected.

The letters, which were mailed to every county precinct worker in Supervisory District One and Two, were signed by H. L. "Jack" Cummings, retired chairman of the board of supervisors; S. S. Ripley, former member of the board, and Ivan Goyak, incumbent supervisor.

AT THE SAME TIME another letter, which appears on this page, was mailed to union officials throughout the county by Attorney Robert Condon. Condon, who has his law office in Martinez, is a former congressman from this district. He was defeated by Congressman John Baldwin four years ago.

In the letters signed by the supervisors, the wording was identical except for the fact that one letter was signed by Goyak and Ripley, the other by Cummings.

The only difference in wording was the fact that the letter signed by the two men used "we," whereas Cummings' letter used "I."

The letter was mailed to precinct workers, each of whom is appointed by the supervisor in whose district he or she resides.

Precinct workers are paid for their time counting election ballots.

The letters read, in part:

"DEAR PRECINCT Worker: "During the time I served as your Supervisor I had the pleasure of appointing you to the Election Board.

"The chief reward of this public service consisted, I know, in the satisfaction of having been a part of the democratic process by which we select public officials.

"Because of the interest you have in good government, it seems appropriate now that another election impends for me to recommend for your consideration the candidacy of Thomas F. McBride, whom I know to be exceptionally well qualified for the office he seeks, that of Judge, Superior Court, Department No. Six.

"Thomas McBride, the Chief Assistant District Attorney, gave ready and able assistance to your Board of Supervisors during the years he worked with us. He has shown a deep interest in and a keen understanding of the problems of local government, problems which have been many and varied, and he always has been willing to give time and attention to them . . .

"I would greatly appreciate your support in behalf of Thomas F. McBride."

THE LETTER SIGNED by Ripley and Goyak was mailed from Richmond and dated April 10, 1958. The letter signed by Cummings was mailed from Crockett and dated April 16. Aside from the "I" and "We" the wording was identical.

Another letter, also signed by Ripley, was sent to all county employees. This letter noted that McBride has been adviser to the Civil Service Commission and the Retirement Board and has "taken an active interest in matters which concern County employees — employee organizations, Civil Service, Retirement and the Credit Union.

When asked why this organized campaign should be generated to unseat him, Judge Fraga said that there is no obvious reason except that "it is the law of the pack."

He noted that when Department Six was opened, and an appointment was to be made by the Governor last year, that a petition was signed by 39 attorneys in the county asking that the Governor appoint some other man than himself.

Supervisors Defer Action On Proposal

The Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors Tuesday closed their hearing on the much-contested application of quarry-operator A. J. McCosker for a permit to operate a rock-crusher in the Redwood Canyon area.

The supervisors will announce their decision on the permit at 10 a.m. May 6. Meanwhile the board will visit the site of the proposed crusher operation.

Tuesday's hearing was lengthy, with McCosker appearing to set forth his reason for seeking the permit, and a number of persons appearing to voice objections to the application.

Among those who appeared to protest the granting of the permit were Ed Munns, Concord, president of the Contra Costa Park an Recreation Council, Mrs. Wilbur Koehler, of the Lost Valley Community Association, William Drake of Canyon, and Philomena Drake, who appeared for the Canyon School Board and the Canyon Community Club.

MUNNS, WHO appeared also on behalf of the East Bay Chapter of the Sierra Club, set forth four recommendations for the supervisors.

The Park and Recreation Council said he felt the area is a recreation area and that Pinehurst Road, which would be used by McCosker's trucks, should not be improved by removing trees and curves.

Second, Munns said, the board of supervisors should investigate the reservation areas—especially the Canyon area—for future use as county park and recreation sites.

Third, he said, the supervisors should establish a committee to review quarry ordinances which are not being complied with.

Finally, Munns stated, the supervisors should investigate possible safeguards, which are not now in ordinance form, to protect areas from erosion, dust, unsanitary conditions, and mud washes into the watershed.

MUNNS ALSO SAID he feels that all conditions agreed upon previously by McCosker should be complied with before any permit is granted. Munns stated that McCosker has told the supervisors that he would provide a map showing the location of his operations. This map, Munns complained, has never been submitted.

Mrs. Wilbur Koehler, president of the Lost Valley Homeowners Association, said that it is the hope of the association that the permit is not granted.

She stated that the PG&E substation, a quarter of a mile from her home, is undergoing $40,000 in improvements to curtail noise. The proposed rock crusher, she said, will consitiute much more of a nuisance regarding noise than does the substation.

Mrs. Koehler also stated, "The Lost Valley Improvement Association wants no trucking in the residential area. There is no outlet for the quarry and the truck route for quarry trucks has not been defined. Trucks are not wanted in the Lost Valley area."

CANYON RESIDENT William Drake an officer in the Nature Conservancy stated that he feels the approval of the rock crusher operation would greatly increase the present quarry operation and also increase use of Pinehurst Road.

"Use of Pinehurst Road by heavy trucks," he said, "would wreck the road and cost the county a lot of money. This application has been aptly-timed, because it will put the applicant in the position of marketing stone when the Shepherd Canyon Freeway is ready for construction."

Also, Drake said, with the completion of the freeway, there will be more residential areas and more people to object to the quarrying operation.

Mrs. Drake, representing the Canyon School Board, the Canyon Community Club and the Committee for Legal Action, offered possible restrictions on quarry operations which could be drafted into the form of an ordinance. The restrictions, she said, had been drafted by the Committee for Legal Action.

MRS. DRAKE STATED that other counties have ordinances to restrict and regulate quarry operations. Contra Costa County she said, has no such quarry ordinance.

Supervisor Melvin Nielsen showed pictures of Pinehurst road which he said had been severely deteriorated over two weeks of recent emergency use by trucks from another quarrying firm.

He stated that if the rock crusher permit is allowed, the road will probably be travelled by 50 loaded trucks a day. At present, with trucks hauling only about 5 trucks a day use the road, Nielsen said. He said that if the permit is granted the road will need much stronger ballasting than is customary.

Supervisor Ray Taylor said he estimated that the improvements and construction on the road would cost between $50,000 and $80,000. However, he said, some of this money would have to be spent anyway on improving the road.

Traditional Sun Candidate Night Scheduled May 28

The date of The Sun's candidate night has been changed from May 26 to May 28, according to Herman Silverman, Sun editor and publisher.

The traditional Sun's candidate night will be held at Acalanes High School on Pleasant Hill Road.

RESIDENTS OF the area will have an opportunity of hearing and asking questions of candidates for supervisor, Third District; Walnut Creek Judicial District; Superior Court Judge, Department VI; House of Representatives, Sixth District; Assembly, 10th District; Sheriff, District Attorney; Assessor, Contra Costa County, and others.

Seats will be available for more than 500 persons, plus bleacher facilities, so all who attend will have seating where they can both see and hear.

There will be a timekeeper, provided by the Mt. Diablo Toastmasters' Club who will be equipped with a loud buzzer to insure that no candidate exceeds his alloted time at the microphone.

WHY NOT PLAN to make it a family affair? The evening will provide a good opportunity for the youngsters to see our democratic and governmental processes in action.

And it will be an equally fine opportunity for adult members of the family to acquaint themselves with issues at stake in order to vote more intelligently on election day.

Moraga Plan Ruling May 6

The County Planning Commission, scheduled to make a decision on the Moraga General Plan on Tuesday, has deferred its decision until May 6 in order to have adequate time for studying aerial photos of the Burton area, site of a proposed nine-acre shopping center.

In ruling the decision over to May 6, commissioners announced Tuesday, "A shopping center area is proposed in the Burton area and it has been the subject of controversy by many local residents. This area is proposed as a neighborhood facility approximately nine acres in area.

"At the conclusion of a field trip in Friday, April 18, the planning commission announced to the staff that they were withholding their decision on the Moraga Plan for two weeks, which would be Tuesday, May 6th. The original announcement had been scheduled for Tuesday, April 22nd."

Planning commissioners indicated they wanted additional time for study of the plan including the shopping center area and also wanted adequate time for preparation of an aerial photograph showing the exact site of the center.

Bunce Secretary To be Sentenced Today in Oakland

Pretty Gail Harrison, 19-year-old secretary of convicted swindler John Bunce of Orinda, will be sentenced today in Oakland Municipal Court as a result of a guilty verdict returned by a jury Wednesday night.

Miss Harrison of Walnut Creek faces a maximum sentence, on the charge of trespassing, of six months in prison, $500 fine or both.

She was acquited by the seven-woman, five-man jury on two charges of malicious mischief and vagrancy.

She was released by Judge William Hoffman to her own recognizance. Sentencing is at 9 this morning in Judge Hoffman's court.

All three charges stemmed from an incident October 18 when Miss Harrison allegdly broke a glass door to Bunce's office with her handbag and removed a stack of files.

Lincoln Firm Plans Center

A $503,000 purchase of 205 acres of land near Lake Natoma was announced this week by Lincoln Development Company of Lafayette.

Condon Says: 'Letter OK For Itself'

"I think the letter speaks for itself. It won't do my boy any good in your area, I'm sure, but it certainly expresses my feelings about the two candidates."

These were the words of Attorney Robert Condon when The Sun informed him that his letter would appear in The Sun, and asked him if he had any comment he cared to make. (See adjoining story.)

"I sent out about 20 of those letters," Condon said, "and it is to be expected that one of them would find its way to you."

WHEN ASKED about exercising the right of challenge, which he states in his letter, Condon said, "I certainly did that. And if any case of mine appears before Fraga, I will exercise that right again."

The right of challenge, as outlined by the last session of the California Legislature, permits an attorney to exercise one challenge over which the judge has no jurisdiction. If the attorney exercises this right, the judge has no choice but to turn over jurisdiction of the case to another judge.

Formerly, the judge could not be challenged, but could deny the challenge, subject to the right of appeal of the attorney. As the law now stands, the judge cannot hear the case over the objections of the attorney.

Four Orinda Parents' Clubs Elect Officers

Organizational meetings have been held in four of the five Orinda Schools to elect officers and approve the by-laws for Parents' Clubs in the individual schools.

Each school will be represented in the Parents' Club Cooperating Council which will coordinate the various school activities much as Mothers' Club Board has done so successfully in the past.

Glorietta School parents met April 15th and elected the following officers: President, Mrs. Charles Ivy, Vice President, Mrs. Anthony Yriberri, Recording Secretary, Mrs. Ross Van Dyke, Treasurer, Mrs. Henry Anderson, Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Ralph Miners.

Sleepy Hollow School Parents met April 15th and elected the following officers: President, Mrs. J. F. Conley, Vice President, Mrs. Douglas S. Manuel, Recording Secretary, Mrs. Cecil E. Cantrill, Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Thomas Baron, and Treasurer, Mrs. S. Stanley Hunn.

Del Rey School parents met April 16th and elected the following officers: President, Mrs. Norman Cunningham, Vice President, Mrs. Robert Woods, Recording Secretary, Mrs. James Dobey, Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Howard Young, and Treasurer, Mrs. Herbert Goranson. They were especially glad to have so many interested fathers participate.

Pine Grove School parents met April 22nd and elected the following officers: President, Mrs. Frank Shirey, Vice President, Mrs. Victor Kingston, Recording Secretary, Mrs. Jack Walling, Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Leland Hamilton, Treasurer, Mrs. Burton Kohler.

Orinda School parents will meet May 7th for their election of officers.

All meetings were well attended and it was fun seeing the fathers at the evening meetings.

Nationwide Dial System Due Here

Nationwide telephone dialing starts July 13 in Orinda.

Announcement of the starting date was made today by Pacific Telephone Manager Howard Greenhalgh.

He said that crewmen now are far enough along on their job of installing the necessary equipment to set an exact in-service date.

The nationwide dialing equipment will be located in Orinda's new dial telephone building on Santa Maria Way, and is part of a $1,000,000 project to meet the area's future telephone needs.

With nationwide dialing, people will be able to pick up their telephones and dial long distance calls to hundreds of cities and towns in California and across the United States, Greenhalgh said.

Only a few extra spins of the dial will send calls to such places as Los Angeles, Sacramento or even Chicago and New York, he stated.

Greenhalgh said that special nationwide dialing pamphlet will be sent to Orinda customers shortly before nationwide dialing starts.

The booklet will tell just how to dial a long distance call and also contain a list of many dialable points, Greenhalgh explained.

Orinda Gets Share of Sun

Orinda weather remained balmy over the last week as Orinda golfers, tennisplayers and sportsmen got their first chance at a real outing.

Daytime temperatures stayed in the comfortable mid-60s and 70s while the nighttime low dropped to a nippy 33 Wednesday night. The official Orinda weather - watcher notes that there was frost Tuesday and Wednesday nights.

The weather for the week:

Police Record Two Collisions In Same Spot

A spot on St. Mary's Road between Rheem Boulevard Bolinger Canyon Road was the scene Tuesday of two almost identical head-on collisions.

Involved in the first crash were the pickup truck driven by Donald W. Black, Oakland, and the light foreign car driven by Alan Banks, Albany. Police said the crash occurred when the pickup hit an embankement and swerved into the Banks vehicle.

Mrs. Banks, a passenger in the small car, was hospitalized at Walnut Creek where she was listed as in good condition. Her husband sustained minor injuries. Black was being held on driving charges.

While police were investigating the first crash a pickup truck driven by Floyd West, 21, hit an embankment and struck the car driven by Mrs. E. T. Lytle, Lafayette. Though the pickup overturned in the crash, West, of Martinez, crawled out with only minor rib injuries. He was cited by highway patrolmen.

Mrs. Lytle and her granddaughter, Margaret Gardener, 5, were injured.

Fraga Is Hit by 'Campaign'

to get that petition signed," said Fraga. They held a meeting and there were attorneys there who refused to sign the petition. One attorney, whose name appeared on it when it was sent to the Governor's office, didn't even sign it and later wrote Knight to that effect.

"Twelve of those attorneys who signed the petition have since come to me and said that they were mistaken in signing it, and have stated that I have been more than fair in my court procedures."

Before the Governor announced his appointment, some attorneys attempted to set up a "plebescite" in the name of the County Bar Association to poll attorneys on their choice for the judgeship. The Association had not officially approved this action.

Governor Knight emphatically declared that he had not asked for such a poll and did not desire it. This killed the plebescite and Governor Knight thereafter appointed Fraga.

When asked if he had been approached by attorneys to "deal" in the back room when he was judge of the Martinez Justice Court, Fraga said:

"LET'S USE THE word influence. There are a few people who try to influence a judge's thinking. They want to work in the back room. As a Martinez judge, I was phoned by prominent attorneys and public officials who asked that their client be allowed to forfeit bail so that he wouldn't have to appear in court and would not be sentenced."

When asked whether or not he considered himself a "strict judge and could some of the attorneys be unhappy because he was unfair or unduly strict with the sentencing of his cases, Fraga said:

"No, I'm not strict. The lawyers are not unhappy. I make the calls as they should be called. I believe in justice, and that means equal justice for all people."

Directors See New Bank Here

For the first time, the regular meeting of the Board of Directors, Central Valley National Bank, was held at its new Orinda office, 21 Moraga Highway, on April 16.

Charles P. Partridge, chairman of the board and president, conducted a tour of inspection of the newly erected building as well as the banking office prior to the meeting. The directors, according to Partridge, were impressed with the modern quarters. They found the 700 sq. ft. landscaped patio and fountain most eye-appealing.

Directors in attendance in addition to Partridge were Arthur F. Adrain, Escalon; Charles E. Bigelow, Hughson; Edward Boeger, Gridley; Ralph W. Carlson, Richvale; A. D. Corda, Novato; Anthony Dal Porto, Oakley; Joseph Faria, Jr., Brentwood; Folke K. Floden, Modesto; Peter Magetti, Novato; Willie Osburn, Oakland; H. B. Quick, Parlier; Francis J. Merchants Adopt Year-Long Plan For Promotion

Orinda merchants met Tuesday night at the Casa Orinda and voted to conduct a year-long program of merchandising and promotion for Orinda.

The meeting was staged by the Chamber of Commerce, with Chamber President John Ogden presiding. The tentative year's program was adopted after lenghty discussion of merchandising problems and their solution.

The program is now only tentative, according to Merchant Division Chairman Al Baer, and must now be organized and planned in detail.

At the Tuesday merchants' session, merchants heard Ted Gretzer, assistant to the publisher of Sun Newspapers, speak on "Let's Don't Complain — Get to Work!"

The next Merchants Committee meeting will be at 11 a.m. Wednesday at Sprouse Reitz Store. All businessmen, whether members of the Chamber or not, are invited to attend.

Meadow Pool Opens May 17

Meadow Pool, near Glorietta School, will open for the 1958 season on Saturday, May 17, Pool President Herb Waterman announced Thursday.

Waterman said there was a two-week delay in the opening date because unfavorable weather prevented maintenance which was necessary.

A general meeting of pool members will be held at 8 p.m. Tuesday in the all-purpose room of Glorietta School, Waterman said. Discussion will be about rules and financing.

Persons interested in joining the swimming group may obtain information from membership chairman Fred Bartlett, 278 Glorietta Boulevard, CL 4-3646.

Curriculum Meeting Set

"What Has Happened to the Study of History and English Since the Launching of the Sputniks?" will be the topic of a discussion by the Parents' Curriculum Committee at Pine Grove School on Tuesday.

Guests will be Miss Lily L. Lahti, director of curriculum for the high schools, and Misses Riley and Taylor of the social studies and English departments at Miramonte High School.

Fire Marshal Cites Burning Regulations

In order to clarify regulation one of the Bay Area Air Pollution Control Districts, relative to open burning in the residential areas the following fires are expected from the provisions of this regulation, according to Fire Marshal W. Koch.

Fires for disposal of household rubbish originating at one and two family dwellings, including garden trash and prunings. However, a permit must be obtained from the local fire department for such burning.

Due to the many requests for weekend burning applications for permits must be made at least three days in advance, Koch said.

The tentative deadline for open burning has been set for June 1, he said, urging residents to get burning done by that time, as in previous years no permits for open burning were issued during the hazardous months.

Nearly 27 percent of U. S. drivers involved in 1957 traffic fatalities were under 25 years of age.

Civic Affairs Group Vetoes Community Show

In a close vote Monday night, the Orinda Association's Civic Affairs Committee voted against the association's sponsoring a community show as a money-raising venture.

The Civic Affairs Committee discussion the community production came after the Orinda Association's board of directors this month referred the subject off the show to the civic affairs group.

In referring the matter to the Civic Affairs Committee, Orinda Association Board President Arthur Flint noted that a negative vote on the matter from the civic affairs group would not necessarily end discussion of the Association's sponsorship of a community show.

Flint stated that the matter was being referred to the Civic Affairs Committee merely to get the feeling of various neighborhood associations and clubs to the Association's sponsorship of the show. The Orinda Association Board voted in February to "accept in principle" the sponsorship of the proposed show.

AT THE CIVIC Affairs Committee meeting, committe members voted 10-9 against the Association's board authorizing the Orinda Association's underwriting the proposed production. The vote missed being a deadlock by one vote and four members of the committee abstained from the voting.

Meanwhile, Civic Affairs committee member Jim Dana voted that members of neighborhood associations and clubs should be asked for a $25 donation toward producing the show. The money, he said, is to be returned to the groups if the show earns a profit.

Although the Civic Affairs committee voted against producing the show, the committee voted in favor of Dana's motion to solicit funds for the production.

SPEAKING AT Monday's meeting was Mrs. Marie Monahan, who, with Mrs. Winnie Gilmore, first brought the subject of the community show to the attention of the Orinda Association.

Mrs. Monahan stated that the production of the community show would be a good way to integrate newcomers into the community, generate community spirit, knit the community together, and at the same time raise money for the Association's community projects.

She stated that more than 70 persons have volunteered to help in the production and that many others can be expected to participate if the Association gives the go-sign on the production.

Some members of the Civic Affairs Committee expressed concerning means of financing the show and others advocated determining a specific need for the funds before such a show is produced.

MRS. MONAHAN stated that preparations for the show should begin soon in order for the show to go into production by next spring. Some of the committee members expressed the idea that a need exists to raise money for the Association prior to the time that the proposed show would go into production.

Dr. Leonard Roth made the motion that the Board of Directors should recommend that the Association sponsor the community project, with the proviso that profits be earmarked for a specific purpose concerning the Association's community property.

The motion was defeated by the 10-9 vote.

In other business, on motion from Holland DuBois, the committee voted that board go record as opposing any road from the McCosker quarry through Lost Valley.

Orinda Library Building Starts

Construction began this week at the site of the Orinda Library, Board President Perc Brown stated.

Brown noted that in laying footings for the library, the construction firm struck a hidden spring, which may result in unforeseen additional construction expenses.

Meanwhile, Brown noted, the building fund is still short $16,800 of its goal and donations are still being solicited.

Orindan Named To Authority

Joseph A. Spangler of Orinda has been named administrative officer for the California Adult Authority.

Authority chairman Fred Finsley stated that Spangler will be "the executive for the Adult Authority and its staff."

The Orindan's new job will make him spokesman for the authority before legislative committees and in conference with judges, district attorneys, and other legal groups.

Obedience Trials Draw 234 Entries

The Mt. Diablo Dog Training Club will hold its 11th annual unbenched all obedience trials on Sunday at the Walnut Creek Recreation Center in the city park from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. The public is invited free of charge.

Officers of the club report that there have been 234 entries for this show.

According to AKC records as published in "Popular Dog" April 1958, this show ranked fourth in attendance in the United States, second in California, and first in the Bay Area.

There have been over 100 trophies donated by local merchants, members, and friends. Ten each will be awarded in the first three classes and eight each in the other three classes as well as special awards.

The six classes will be judged by licensed American Kennel Club judges. They are E. N. Gregg of Richmond, W. A. McJunkin of Vallejo, Howard Cross of Harbor City, Thomas E. Pope of Walnut Creek, Nicholas L. Kay of Fullerton, and James Frey of San Francisco.

'Hot Tin Roof' Next Geary Play

Victor Jory, one of America's most distinguished actors, will be seen in San Francisco, beginning Sunday, May 4, playing the role of Big Daddy Pollitt in "Cat On a Hot Tin Roof" at the Geary Theatre.

The drama won the Pulitzer Prize, New York Drama Critics' Award, and countless other citations during its two-year run on Broadway and engagements in eighteen foreign countries.

Jory, who has played many important roles in Broadway hits in addition to over 127 film roles, is enjoying this actor's "plum" in the Williams drama more than any other role he has played on stage, screen or television.

Suporting Jory in the prize play is Jean Inness (Mrs. Jory), known for her many roles on stage, screen and radio, playing Big Mama.

Brick, Big Daddy's favorite son, is enacted by William Daniels, whose first role on Broadway was that of another well known stage son, Clarence Day Jr., in "Life With Father."

The author takes his audience into this bed sitting room for a celebration of Big Daddy's sixty-fifth birthday and for three acts he socks and shocks as only Tennessee Williams can.

A LOVELY LADY, Miss Barbara Westbrook, a former Miss Contra Costa County, agrees that "You Auto Buy Now" from the selections of new and used cars being made available by local automobile dealers. Prices have been adjusted to make this time of the year the best for purchasing that needed transportation.

'YOU AUTO BUY NOW' Is Biggest Event Yet

"YOU AUTO BUY NOW" is the BIG STORY among automobile dealers throughout the area as they conduct the biggest automotive sales event in the history of Central Contra Costa County.

Tying in with the national program, YOU AUTO BUY NOW week is the biggest national sales event ever offered by the automotive industry.

Literally thousands of "Good Buys" are to be found on dealer's lots, and hundreds of special programs are proclaiming the giant event.

Used cars have been marked down specially for the event, and there are some real "deals" in trasportation to be had for the asking.

New car dealers throughout the area are also offering special promotions, and have most models available for immediate delivery on special terms.

DEALERS HAVE proclaimed their offers in special advertisements which will be found on the inside pages of this paper. See the classified pages and the special display ads.

Most dealers have set up special displays, in which the buyer, or interested spectator can discover the workings and special features of this year's shiny new models.

Used car dealers are offering special bargains in everything from Maxwells to 1958 models with just a few miles on the speedometer.

FOR THOSE WHO are interested in any kind of transportation, as long as it has four wheels, this is the week to take a long, searching look around, because dealers have gone all out to offer their best.

Girl Scouts in Actio Tomorrow at Acalanes

In appreciation of the support of the public, Girl Scouts of Diablo Valley Area Council are holding open house free of charge at their annual "Girl Scouts in Action" this Saturday from 11:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. at Acalanes High School.

At 1 .m. there will be an International Flag Ceremony, featuring the flags of 35 countries. Senior Scout Karen Fernsten of Orinday will be mistress of ceremonies.

Representing 71 troops, about 700 girls from Danville, Alamo, Walnut Creek, Pleasant Hill, Ygnacio Valley, Lafayette and Orinda will be participating.

Forty-nine troops are eager to show everyone what they are doing through exhibits and demonstrations of pottery, sewing, wood carving, leather craft, star gazing, cookie decorating, puppet making and other crafts. Another 14 troops will be on stage to entertain with skits, plays, songs, square and folk dancing and with a fashion show.

STILL OTHER TROOPS will be demonstrating good grooming, knot tying, first aid, campcraft, home nursing and landscaping scaled down to cigar-box size.

Senior girls will maintain the emergency first aid station and will also be exhibiting their program, including hospital and library aides.

Other girls will be assisting in the Flag Ceremony and as ushers and nursery aides.

Brownies will be there to participate in a ceremony honoring the founder, Juliette Low, and to get a preview of what is ahead for them in Girl Scouting.

THE SENIORS will be in charge of serving snacks, refreshments and lunch for a nominal fee. Proceeds will go toward their own troop maintenance, camping, service projects, and hopefully a trip to our Cabana in Mexico.

Mrs. W. W. Wiggins of Lafayette issued this invitation:

"Everyone is cordially invited to come to Acalanes High School on Saturday, April 26. The various troops participating have planned and worked for many weeks to make this an interesting and instructive afternoon. They want the public to see what they can do and how well they can do it. As a United Crusade supporter, won't you come along and see your local Girl Scout in Action"

Vic Tanny Will Hold Open House

Open house will be celebrated at the Vic Tanny Gym in Walnut Creek Saturday from 5 until 10 p.m. and will be highlighted by a fashion show and bathing beauty contest, according to Janet McLaughlin, manager.

Featured during the program will be Jack LaLanne, famous star of KGO-TV and health authority, she noted.

During the late morning hours and in the afternoon a motor parade, with the Vic Tanny girls, will pass through Lafayette, Orinda, Walnut Creek, Pleasant Hill and Concord.

Fashions will be shown from Leidy's Country Girl in the Broadway Shopping Center. On display will be a boat and water skis which will be given to some member of the club during the festivities. The boat is from Joe Corse Boat Sales, 8301 MacArthur Boulevard, Oakland.

During the parade, thousands of pink carnations will be distributed through the communities in Central Contra Costa inviting the public to the open house celebration, Miss McLaughlin commented.

Christian Science

The vital importance of spiritual growth will be emphasized at Christian Science services Sunday.

Christian Science churches in this area are at 22 Orinda Highway, Orinda; 1347 Locust Street, Walnut Creek, and in Concord at the corner of Grant and Park streets. Christian Science Society of Pleasant Hill holds its services at the Hillcrest Congregational Church on Gregory Lane.

Keynoting the lesson-sermon entitled "Probation after Death" is the Golden Text from Jeremiah (17:7): "Blessed is the man that trusteth in the Lord, and whose hope the Lord is."

Selections to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include the following (406: 20-25): "We can, and ultimately shall, so rise as to avail ourselves in every direction of the supremacy of Truth over error, Life over death, and good over evil, and this growth will go on until we arrive at the fullness of God's idea, and no more fear that we shall be sick and die."

From the Bible will be read the following (Luke 20:38): "For he is not a God of the dead, but of the living: for all live unto him."

Bob Davis, Polio Victim, Carried Over Waters

By NORMAN COLBY

Cherry Lane homeowners had good reason to be dismayed April 2, when they saw the Walnut Creek channel waters cover the streets and swirl across their lawns.

But the best reason of all for apprehension belonged to 20-year-old Bob Davis, son of Harry and Mildred Davis of 2701 Cherry Lane.

Bob is a polio victim whose breathing depends on his electrically - operated iron lung at night and on several other electrical machines during the day.

Bob, his mother and his nurse, Betty Rapisarda, watched the advancing water and wondered if it would flood the home as was the case in 1955, before Bob was stricken with polio.

IF THE WATER should reach the electrical outlets, the fuses would blow out. And battery-powerd units would supply power for only four hours. The gasoline generator was limited by the fuel supply.

Mrs. Davis said, "At 1:30 we called my husband in Oakland where he works. But an hour later he hadn't arrived, so we called the Sheriff's Department and the Fire Department.

"The Fire Deparment arrived with a big truck and a Volkswagen, but Harry got here at the same time, and they all pitched in," she said.

The Davises and their helpers got Bob onto a chaise lounge,, and to the front door, from which they carried him to the family station wagon, which was built high enough above the ground to avoid immersion and stalling.

BOB USED A Thompson "mouth positive," which is one of the machines he has for daytime use, on the trip to the station wagon, and a Huxley "mouth positive" after that.

He remained calm throughout the uncertain journey over the water.

Mrs. Davis added, "The water was up to the running boards when we finally got away, but later on it turned out that we were luckier than many other people out here. The water got in the house, but it didn't do much damage."

Bob was taken to the Fairmont Hospital in San Leandro, and returned home in a week.

The family's temporary exodus was only one of the adjustments which it has made since Bob was stricken with polio in September, 1956, while attending the University of Oregon at Eugene, Ore.

CERTAIN ROOMS in the Davis home have a hospital look to them, due to the necessity for several machines, including the "lung," "Thompson," "Huxley" and others.

Bob had been very active in local affairs. He was vice president of the Las Lomas High School student body as a senior student, and was master councilor of the DeModay.

When he was first taken ill, he was treated in Oregon, was then sent to the Highland Hospital in Oakland for a few days, and then to the Fairmont Hospital where he underwent rehabitation treatment. He hopes that he will be able to begin a limited scholastic study this fall, but until now has been kept very busy with physical therapy treatments and speech training.

One of his activities has been assembling much of the printed and written materials collected during his student government and DeMolay days into scrapbooks.

Moraga Junior Horse Show Set for May 18

Plans are underway for the third Moraga Junior Horseshow scheduled for Sunday May 18, 1958, to be held at the new Moraga Horseman's arena, in Bollinger Canyon Moraga.

Starting at 8 p.m., juniors under 18 years of age will compete in the 17 events. First place trophys and ribbons to fifth place will be awarded for each event. William Morrison, 3620 Madrone Drive, Lafayette.

Sponsored by the Moraga Horseman's Assoiation, all proceeds will be donated to the club building fund. Chairman for the dedication ceremony which will be held at the noon hour is William Lance.

The dedication speech will be given by the supervisor from the Moraga district, Mel Nielsen. The Moraga Junior Color Guard will also participate in the ceremonies.

Direction signs will be posted at the Moraga Boulevard intersection, Rheem Center, St. Mary's College, for the convenience of visitors.

Food will be sold at the arena through out the day for the accomodation of all interested parties.

Private Practice Section of Jury Report Given

A complete report on the recommendations of the Contra Costa Grand Jury concerning the district attorney's office was heard by delegates of the Pleasant Hill Civic Council Monday night at Fair Oaks School.

THE CIVIC COUNCIL has been reviewing recommendations of the grand jury to determine what action has been taken on the recommendations by county officials.

The grand jury implied the district attorney's office might be involved with "possible conflict of interest."

The 1956-57 Grand Jury's foreman, Phil Bancroft Jr., said in the annual report of the jury:

"In connection with the study of the District Attorney's Office, the committee heard expressions of concern from a great many quarters with respect to the policy of the District Attorney of maintaining a private law practice and of his permitting his deputies to have private law practices.

"A variety of criticisms of this practice were voiced including the following:

"1. Possibility of questionable legal solicitations: Citizens who seek the district attorney's assistance may wind up as clints of a deputy. When a case does not come within the county's jurisdiction it is possible for the deputy to solicit the case for his private practice.

"2. Possible conflicts of interest: In their private practices the district attorney and his deputies become associated with many people. Some of these may violate the law. When this occurs there may be a tendency to minimize the charges; perhaps accepting a plea to a lesser offense. In civil cases involving the county and a former client there may be some tendency to be sympathetic.

"Even the most scrupulously honest individual finds it difficult to be completely objective in such situations.

"Assignment of a different deputy to handle such cases is not a satisfactory solution to the problem, because frequently the county would lose the services of the man best qualified by training and experience to handle the case.

"The solution of our federal government to this problem has been to prohibit the employee associations which might lead to conflict of interest.

Gordon E. Langlois, chairman of the law enforcement committee, added to the report, "These recommendations regarding the District Attorney Francis Collins and his staff, who we feel are doing as sincere, conscientious and effective a job as is possible under existing conditions are not intended as criticism."

A REPORT on the activities of the district attorney and his deputies was to have been presented by Parker's committee at the March meeting of the civic council, but was postponed to give the situation further study, Parker said.

Where Will New Hospital Go? Doctors Ponder

Questionaires which indicate which hospital site is preferred by members of the Walnut Creek Hospital Associaiton were examined recently by Association directors.

The questionaires had been sent out to the 70 members and a few outside doctor contributors last week, and discussion was held on the possible choices at a meeting last Saturday at the city hall.

The doctors may decide to consolidate with Martinez doctors who have offered to contribute $500,000 to $1 million for construction of a hospital, provided it be located in the area of Pleasant Hill Road and Grayson Road.

The Martinez doctors have said that they would not request any immediate contribution from central county doctors, and the central county doctors would not have to guarantee payment of the mortgage.

Doctors who wish to have their hospital closer to Walnut Creek have been offered two sites in Ygnacio Valley, and these sites have been discussed favorably by several Association members.

There is also the site at Geary Road and Pleasant Hill Road, which the city of Walnut Creek has decided to rezone for hospital use if the site is chosen, and when the land is annexed.

At the recent meeting, Bruce Copeland, chairman of the Finance Committee, said that the Martinez doctors have the money saved from profits taken in over the years at the Martinez Community Hospital. But there are only 11 doctors in that area and they would need the business that some 70 doctors in Walnut Creek, Lafayette, Pleasant Hill, Alamo and Danville could bring in, he said.

This is why they want to join with the Walnut Creek Hospital Association, he said.

Means of independently financing the hospital construction have been discussed, and several "package" deals, have been considered.

Nejedly Rips Private Work Of DA Collins

Speaking before a crowd of more than 400 attending a $10 a plate campaign dinner at the Diablo Country Club, Walnut Creek City Attorney John A. Nejedly, candidate for District Attorney, declared that the incumbent District Attorney may be "either a good lawyer or a good District Attorney, but he can"t be a good both."

Stating that he is personally friendly toward the incumbent, Nejedly stated bluntly that "19th century government cannot serve the 20th century needs of Contra Costa's 350,000 people" and that "the issue of this campaign is the county's desperate need for a Full-Time District Attorney to meet the many problems resulting from the county's expanding population and state-wide importance.

"This is an issue that transcends personal friendship and demands the aroused action of an aroused electorate to cure," Nejedly said.

Citing court records, Nejedly declared that during the past year the incumbent District Attorney has had one of the county's largest private practices and one the Grand Jury and the Governor said should be abolished.

Pledging himself to give up the private practice of the law to devote his full time to the execution of his duties as District Attorney, Nejedly urged Contra Costans to unite, not against a man, but against the system the incumbent represents, and in voting for him, Nejedly, to advance Contra Costa into the future and provide the type of full-time responsibility the County of Contra Costa demands.

Ring Announces Area Chairmen

Terence Ring, candidate for judge of the Walnut Creek Judicial district, today announced the appointment of chairmen in charge of his campaign in the various areas within the territory served by the justice court.

In Orinda, Joe Longacre, attorney, and George S. Dodge, real estate broker, will spearhead the Ring campaign. The Lafayette area will be in charge of Jack Hageman, insurance broker, and Eugene Murphy, retired police lieutenant.

Rowland Barrett and Barney Gilbert, businessmen, will head Ring's campaign effort in Walnut Creek.

Ring, a Walnut Creek attorney since 1946, has professed a long-time ambition to seek the judge's post.

St. Mary's Expansion Is Planned

New dormatories and classroom facilities are in the cards for St. Mary's College in order that the institution may cope with it's swelling enrollment.

With the college slated to reach it's maximum resident student capacity this fall, a college spokesman said this week that plans are underway to modernize the present plant and add more facilities.

On an executive committee to map the development program are Fred Ferroggiaro of Oakland, former chairman of the board of the Bank of America; Andrew Lynch of San Francisco, of Marsh and McLennan-Cosgrove Co., and Weller Noble of Berkeley, former president of Pacific Guano Co.

The appointments were made by Daniel J. McGanney, chairman of the college board of regents.

McGanney also announces the appointment of Arthur J. Mott of Oakland as chairman of the alumni fund.

Mrs. Ford Is Nejedly Leader

Mrs. Leonard H. Ford, wife of the City Architect of Walnut Creek, today accepted the women's chairmanship of John Nejedly's campaign for District Attorney.

Mrs. Ford has been active in various women's association since her arrival in Walnut Creek in 1940. She has been chairman of various district committees of the General Federation of Women's Clubs and county treasurer of that organization.

She is a past president of Diablo Valley Girl Scouts and of Las Amigas Parlor of Native Daughters.

Mrs. Ford gained wide prominence through her attempts to keep Walnut Creek's old Little Red Church as a historical landmark.

Farm Bureau Women to Meet

Mrs. Douglas Killingworth, Orinda, is a member of the nominating committee which will submit a roster of officers at the May 2 meeting of the Danville Farm Bureau Women.

The meeting will be at 10 a.m. in the Farm Bureau Hall in Concord.

Battle Page

Baldwin Chairman Announced

Rep. John F. Baldwin's re-election committee chairman in the Lafayette area will be Mrs. William B. Freeman, 3905 Happy Valley Road, Lafayette, Harmon Howard, Baldwin campaign chairman, announced today.

Mrs. Freeman, who is welfare chairman of the Salvation Army in Lafayette and who was a Lafayette Elementary School Board member for nine years, has taken an active role in many civic organizations. She is the mother of five boys, Leigh and Marshall, who graduated from Stanford, and Timothy, now a Stanford student, Bill, a student at Oregon State, and Douglas, a sophomore at Acalanes High School.

Accepting the post, Mrs. Freeman wrote Howard:

"My wholehearted enthusiasm for the job John Baldwin is doing as a member of Congress includes an appreciation of his support for appropriations for Contra Costa and Solano schools under Public Laws 815 and 874.

"All voters can be grateful, too, for Congressman Baldwin's work on the Federal Interstate Highway Act of 1956, his support of an adequate national defense, and his opposition to unnecessary spending of taxpayers' funds to construct a third House Office Building and second Senate Office Building in Washington, D.C."

Mutnick is Nejedly's Chairman

John Nejedly's campaign for District Attorney received added impetus today with appointment of Harold E. Mutnick, widely-known attorney, as chairman of the Lafayette area for Nejedly's campaign.

Mutnick, resident of Lafayette and president of the Diablo Improvement Federation, is a member of the Lafayette Chamber of Commerce and various other civic groups.

He is a veteran of four years World War II service with the Army Air Corps.

"Being in the private practice of law and working with law enforcement machinery every day, I am keenly aware of our great community need for John Nepedly as our full-time district attorney," said Mutnick.

Johnson Seeks Assessorship

"We all realize that there are a great many inequities in the assessing of property in this county," Oscar A. Johnson, candidate for assessor, stated this week.

Johnson, a native of Oakland and by occupation a farmer, stated that although the county assessor does not actually assess property himself he is responsible for overseeing the work of approximately 30 deputy assessors.

Johnson states that if elected he will send assessors around to homes for a second time if residents feel they have been wrongly assessed the first time.

Stating that he has made a hobby of the study of law, Johnson said: "If I am elected to the office of assessor, my interest and knowledge of law will be of great aid to me in my performance of this important job. Also I have made a long study of the real estate problems of this county."

Forde Available For Addresses

A. W. Anderson, of the committee to elect John R. Forde judge of the Walnut Creek Judicial District, this week announced that candidate Forde will be able to accept a limited number of speaking engagements before clubs, civic and social groups.

Forde, a practicing attorney in Walnut Creek, is a native of San Francisco and attended the University of Notre Dame, where he was graduated with honors.

He is a member of the state bars of California and Wisconsin and has engaged in trial work in both states and has tried cases before federal courts in other parts of the United States.

Forde is a veteran, having served with the Army Air Forces in the India-Burma theater, assigned to the 33rd Fighter Group of the 58th Fighter Squadron. He was assigned to the intelligence section.

AFL Endorses Jerome Waldie

Jerome R. Waldie, Antioch attorney and Democratic candidate for 10th District Assemblyman, recently received the unanimous endorsement of the AFL Labor League for Political Education at the state convention held in San Francisco last week.

This endorsement resulted after screening by organized labor in the 10th District of the Republican candidate, Sam Conti, and of Waldie.

Both candidates appeared before screening groups and requested endorsement.

Labor endorsement for the past four years has gone to the Republican incumbent, Donald Doyle, now retiring.

Waldie is an attorney practicing in Antioch in his own offices and was born in Antioch.

He attended the University of California and obtained his law degree from the University of California School of Law at Boalt Hall in 1953, being admitted to the State Bar in the same year.

Mutnick Heads Lafayette Area Nejedly Group

John Nejedly's campaign for District Attorney received added imetpus today with appointment of Harold E. Mutnick, widely-known attorney, as chairman of the Lafayette area for Nejedly's campaign.

Mutnick, long-time resident of Lafayette and president of the Diablo Improvement Federation, is a member of the Lafayette Chamber of Commerce and various other civic groups. He is a veteran of four years World War II service with the Army Air Corps.

"Being in the private practice of law and working with law enforcement machinery every day, I am keenly aware of our great community need for John Nejedly as our full-time District Attorney," declared Mutnick in accepting appointment as Nejedly's Lafayette chairman.

Awards Given For Service

Two area residents received awards for service with Contra Costa County, it was announced.

They are Frank Buralho of Lafayette, an employee of the Department of Public works, and Mrs. Lois Gleason, an employee of the county hospital.

Mrs. Parker Heads Baldwin Campaign In Pleasant Hill

Representative John F. Baldwin's re-election committee chairman in Pleasant Hill is Mrs. Ann L. Parker, 88 Cleopatra Drive, Harmon Howard, chairman, announced today.

Mrs. Parker, a housewife and former high school teacher is the mother of three children, Donnie, 5, Davy, 4, and Lisa, 3.

Accepting chairmanship of the committee, Mrs. Parker said:

"Congressman Baldwin's constituents recognized his sincerity, hard work, and leadership in '56 by re-electing him by a huge margin of votes. Now he is scheduled to become the ranking Californian on the important House Public Works Committee at the end of this term. Obviously, he will become an even stronger representative for our district and State."

Mrs. Parker and her husband, Wendell R. Parker, are active in various civic organizations. She is secretary of the Walnut Creek branch of the American Association of University Women, past president of Sherman Acres Homes Association, and a member of Prytanean Alumnae and University of California Alumni Association.

Larmer Heads Taylor Backers

Edward M. Larmer has been elected chairman of a "Ray Taylor for Supervisor" club in the Walnut Creek area, it was announced today.

Other officers of the group supporting the reelection of the incumbent supervisor of the third district include Bill Stone, Paul Nave and Ralph Becker, vice-chairmen; Vance Perry, treasurer; Mrs. Mabel Anderson, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. A. J. (Buck) Johnson, recording secretary.

In accepting the chairmanship of the group, Larmer said:

"I feel Ray Taylor has done an outstanding job in representing the people of the Walnut Creek area during his many years of service on the board of supervisors. His long experience is extremely valuable and I feel he merits reelection."

Garden Show Attracts Area Residents

A large number of area residents have entered the California Spring Garden and Home Show, to be held May 3 to 11 at the Oakland Exposition Building.

They are as follows:

From Orinda, Messrs. and Mesdames Darrell Browning, A. H. Bastian, Perc S. Brown, John A. Bohn, Wayne Caygill, John Dorr, Stuart David, James B. Dupuis, F. J. Federighi, Robert Gosch, G. F. Hickok, William Mordy, Mark Noble, Robert Raskob, John Stoffel, John Snow, A. V. Scollard, William Veale.

Judge Should Be Full-Time, Walker Feels

"The office of Judge of the Walnut Creek Judicial District must be a full time position," according to George V. Walker, retired Navy captain and Lafayette attorney and now a candidate for the above position.

Walker pointed out that the present Judge C. L. Thomson has devoted full time to the position for many years and that a change to the part-time status allowed by law would be a serious backward step.

He cited the following disadvantages:

(1) the availability of the judge's time. (2) the possibility of conflict of interest which might arise in the minds of litigants and offenders who might conceivably appear before a judge who had previously represented them or their opponents as a private attorney.

Walker emphasized that the question of conflicting interests has not arisen in the past since Judge Thomson, who is not seeking reelection, has devoted full time to the position even though this was not required by the laws regulating Justice Courts.

In viewing the present status of the court as an inferior court with jurisdiction limited to $500 in civil suits and modest filing fees, Walker stated that when the 1960 Federal Census results are compiled and published in a few years it appears probable that the status will change to that of a municipal court.

Any earlier up-grading of the court such as was recently undertaken to form the Concord Municipal Court, Walker feels is unnecessary and undesirable at this time.

He gives as his reasons the easy availability of the Concord Municipal Court plus the facts that were this step taken the number of clerks would have to be doubled and filing fees by litigants would necessarily be considerable higher than at present.

Walker, 55, has previously stressed that he will voluntarily refrain from all private practice if he is elected to the Walnut Creek Judgeship.

PH Junior Chamber Prepares For Candidates Night on May 12

The Pleasant Hill Junior Chamber of Commerce has announced plans for a forthcoming candidates night scheduled for May 12 at 8 p.m. at the Pleasant Hill Recreation Center.

This program is designed to present in an unbiased manner the viewpoints and platforms of the candidates for the respective offices of Supervisor, District Attorney, and Sheriff.

The candidates will be introduced by name, occupation and residence, they will then present a five minute prepared speech. To insure that the five minute time limit is not exceeded a time keeper will be provided.

After the speeches there will be a question and answer period. In order to ask as many questions and receive as many answers as is possible, the Jaycees would like to request that all questions be written on a postcard or letter and addressed to Pleasant Hill Jaycee Candidate night, 108 Price Lane, Pleasant Hill.

A moderator will be provided by the Jaycees to read the questions to the candidates. In this way all the candidates will have an equal chance to answer questions asked them.

The whole program will run from 8 to approximately 9:30. There are 200 seats available and coffee and doughnuts will be served, so bring the whole family and make a night of it. The jaycees urge action.

Plan Meeting

The Contra Costa Democratic Women's Club will meet tomorrow morning at 10 at the home of Mrs. H. W. Stolmack, 538 Masefield Drive, Concord.

Mrs. R. L. Betzendorf, practicing attorney, living in Walnut Creek, will speak on California's water problems.

The club members welcome new members, and plans to have other speakers at future meetings. A rummage sale will be held in Martinez in May. Persons with rummage may call Mrs. J. C. Stock or Mrs. B. T. McBeth.

Suburbia Scribblings

By MARIE MONAHAN

All around the town . . .

DURING SAT.'S CUB SCOUT Paper Drive (they collected TONS!) Chrmn. Russ Usinger got a call from a woman who complained that her morning Chronicle had been picked up by mistake w/the paper-drive bundles and could she PLEASE have HER paper back?

Like a Martian's Motobile, a wee-sized 3-wheeled Isetta car coming in for a landing in front of the Orinda Drug, it's lady driver lifting up & stepping out of the front panel door, funniest thing you ever saw, and leaving behind, sitting snootily as you please, a huge afghan dog looking for all the world like a Dog in a Space Ship.

SIDE-GLANCES . . . Ray & Mela Fontaine & their children pulling into Lucky's parking lot in a spanking-new two-toned Tan Station Wagon, w/that New Car Look in their eyes. Happy Mileaging!

Younger Than Springtime . . . Wearing those beautiful BIG EYES & a graceful full-skirted frock, green & white, w/billowy sleeves, Chris Lang, reminiscent of an Olde English Garden scene, waltzing into the Orinda Hdw. — w/a matching green garden hose coiled around her arm! . . . Nrby. on the corner, Evie Hopper & ONE of her four sisters, Marge Hoffman, just in from Mon. Lunch at the St. Francis looking VERY swish & Big Cityish in straws & summer prints, having shared conversation, food & fashions THERE w/Dorothy Negus of Lafayette. ALL the sisters to be together for the first time in AGES for Evie's Cottonwood Branch lucheon (at Villa de la Paix May 1) which makes Mama Mrs. Edna Twisselman VERY happy!

At Black's, someone telling blonde Mary Lavagetto that they'd seen a TV closeup of her husband Cookie Lavagetto on the Baseball News that morning! Another matron, buying bacon & talking baseball, said she got so excited during THE GAME, cheering for the Giants, natch! that she wrung permanent wrinkles into her non-wrinkable orlon dress.

DURING THE BRUNCH PARTY at Clark's last Sat. Phyllis Simon won the funny Gunny Sack Race without even trying while most of the other ladies' legs got tangled to pieces. Dolly Light almost completeely disguised in a scarf & straw Trinidad hat & dark glasses among the spectators while her young son enjoyed a spun-sugar cone. Jack & Joan McCorkle there lunching w:their youngsters, Jack taking FIRST in the men's Gunny Hop & going home w/an automatic grill as reward—Another prize for runner-up Bldgr. Bob McAdam there w:his family.

The McCorkles, by tne way, will be among those attdg. the Kappa Alumni party tomorrow eve. at the Berkeley Yacht Club. Others anticipating the fun are Gretchen & Duke Ginsburg, Jill & Bob Miller and Joanne & Norwood Allen.

With a little beat of Bach . . .

THERE WAS MUSIC IN THE AIR, and contagious it was too, Sat. at the Rheem Shopping Center. Here was Robin Brown, guitarist, attracting a crowd at the Patio Music Shop w/his spontaneous singing & playing of folk songs & flamenco & a little beat of Bach, yet! The 23-yr.-old musician who has played at the Purple Onion for the Low Brow will play w/the Cal String Quartet for the Hi-Brow in SF May 20, the program to incl. some recently-revived Boccherini. Brown finds time to student teach at Oakland & Portola His & at the SF Conserv. of Music as well as at the Rheem record shop. And Jack Clark of Freres Clark is his NEWEST pupil!

ADD MUSICAL NOTE . . . Carl Schwendelm, proprietor of the Patio Music Shop, (He's played w/most of the Big Bands) will have a choice seat at the Civic Light Opera. He is in the Orch. for the entire musical series, starting w/"Most Happy Fella" this wk.

CHAIN OF COINCIDENCE . . As Mrs. Hick's Fifth-grade Orinda School students enjoyed alound Ralph Moody's "Head Of The Family," a chapter concerning a Measle Epidemic, principal Wm. Gaskell dropped in w/greeting & said jokingly "I hope WE don't have a measle epidemic HERE!" No sooner was he out the door when Howard Prather, who had sat quietly counting the spots on the boy's neck in front of him ,pointed his discovery out to Mrs. Hicks. Teacher promptly dispatched Warren Hinde to the office, from whence he was sent home, practically in the Middle of a Measle!

OH HAPPY DAY! One Orinda mother w/kittens in her kaboodle (you, too!?!) didn't realize the Mother Cat was missing until she turned on the automatic washer and machine started thumping & banging & clanging as if all fury had broken loose. Shakingly, she lifted up the top & Swoosh! Out FLEW her soggy wet & scared-to-death cat put there by one of the children for a rare Moment of Peace!

In the May Issue of EVERYWOMEN'S, on the newstands NOW, Emmarie Gibbs rates a nice big fat byline plus her pix & a squib on the Author's page for her story "Exciting Pre-School Years" w/accompanying photos by Don Jones. The story & pix material is focused on Jamison's Nursery School of Lafayette. April was a lucky month for Emmarie w/the debut of "Diablo View" mag of which she's Ed. plus the above story. And APRIL is also the name of Emmarie's own Nursery School-age dght.

FUNNIEST STORY OF THE WEEK . . . A Political Science studen ftrom the Univ. of Cal. presented himself at the CivAffrs. meet last Mon. night & informed the group he was doing a paper on HOW Orinda runs itself without the legal status of a city. (Oh, Brother!) When he mentioned his paper wasn't due until June, someone chuckled "You'll never make it—but you should get an A for Effort!"

NATURE NOTE . . . Watching the pigeons flocking around the cars at an Oakland Drive-In where he was lunching w/his mother, one of our young blades observed—"They have a DIFFERENT kind of Quail here, don't they, Mom?" Hmmm. What we need is a City Camp to striaghten these poor kids out;

Red lobsters and little blue men!

What a Mean Trick! To fly a big order of Live Lobsters & Clams from Maine to Orinda & then plop them into boiling water! But that's what Betty & Don Larue did, hosting a delightful party at their Altamount Rd. res. Sat. night w/delectabel seafare on the supper menu. Lois & Jerry Pixley and Cay & Gene Snover were among those partaking of the fish treat fresh from Eastern waters, as were Mac & Jean Meteer, Bev & Clint Paine, Emmy & Bill Langon and Ray Shabel.

THERE WERE LOTS OF LITTLE BLUE MEN, Aqua-blue that is when Orinda Park Pool members had a Work Day last Sat. and some of the kids spattered themselves w/the non-kid Aqua-Blue pant used in & around the pool. The Kirby Clan were there, armed w/rake & hoe, a paintbrush for Peg! Brad Olsen helping his father Merrill w/hose and broom . . . Don Anderson & his son Richard lending their energies . . . Mary Richmond taking a tan at the wedding w/help of Mary Tokich, Blossom Schmidt & her Pam. A Family candid of Fran Newman (she's School Board Candidate) pointing out the difference between periwinkle & weeds to her Bob & Julie who knew better anyway, the Newman's new Baby Carol catching a few winks nrby. in her carriage. Pres. Jack Saunders checking the work list w/Weary Fathers coming in to volunteer (you don't need ME, do ya?) after a hot hard morning on the Scout's Paper Drive.

CLAREMONT LUNCHING mid-week for the day honoring Mobilized Women of Berk. we heard a dear little lady inquire—"What-EVER are they so mobilized for?

Flowers from the Garden Hotel's own acres of gardens fragrantly bouquetted at each table & fashions from the Sather Gate Shop making THIS a wkly. tradition w/Many! Lunching w/the Berk. group was Orinda member Eleanor Jackson. Patty Graham of Laf., the group's Sec'y, was missed by her absence due to illness. In another luncheon group was Ann Dana (Mrs. Jim of HE of the Orinda Jaycees). May 7 is Claremont—calendared for the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center w/Tanayer Emerald Smith, past Coordinating Council pres., to join the shemannequins.

/ "MOVING TIME for the Bob Hendricksons recently, their new mailbox over on Diablo View. HOLLY is the pretty name chosen for the Charles Kersten's newest child, their SEVENTH! And among the April Showers was one in reverse for Laurie, co-hostessed for her by friends Emma Usinger & Mary Ann McClure at the former's Los Amigos home. Presents were ALL for The Mother-To-Be-For-The-Seventh-Time. Laurie felt like "Queen For A Day" opening the pretty duds gifted her by Barbara Wayne, Joan Fox, Char Chapple, Jean Watkins, Dorothy Anderson, Jean Smith, Betty Williams, Vera Hart, Benyl Lusher and Carol Juchav.

SUN'S OUT, but ruin is still about. And The HELPING HAND FUND, estab. by friends & strangers to aid the 7 families whose homes went down the drain w/the rain, can still use spare dollars. This litte drive has no campaign organization or door-to-door solication but is simply counting on the appeal of one neighbor asking—or reminding another. Contributions can be mailed or taken to American Trust Bank, Orinda for "The Helping Hand Fund."

NOT SO HAPPY—Jules Accardi as "King Cheerio" registers disappointment despite entreaties to smile from Dodie Reilly, left, as the court jester, and Anne Munroe, right, as "Princess" Rosalie," in a scene from the Junior League East Bay Chlidren's Theatre presentation of "The Princess and the Swineherd," to be shown Saturday, April 26 at Piedmont High School and Saturday, May 3, at Stanley School, Lafayette, with two performances each Saturday at 10:30 a.m. and 2 p.m. The play features Acalanes High School dramatists and is directed by drama coach Berton Trulsson.

Episcopal Communion Is Sunday

On the third Sunday after Easter, the Rev. Albert Lucas will conduct Holy Communion at 8 a.m., family service at 9:15 a.m., and morning prayer at 11 a.m. in St. Stephen's Episcopal church on Via Las Cruces in Orinda.

Choirmaster Donald Aird will direct the St. Stephen's Junior Choir at 9:15 in Wesley's "Lead Me Lord," with his senior choir appearing at 11 o'clock in "Niceae" by Dykes, Davidica's "Eastern Hymn," and "Vigiles at Sancti," which was written in Cologne in 1623. Stanley will sing as offertory solo, "Then Shall the Righteous Shine Forth" from Mendelssohn's "Elijah."

The Seabury Couples Club will hold the annual progressive dinned dance on Friday, May 2, at 7 p.m., begining at the Jack Rand home at 26 Darrel Drive in Orinda. With all courses completed, the group will adjourn to Hill Memorial Hall for dancing. Reservations will be five dollars per couple, and may be made with Mrs. William Sibbet at CL 4-2943, and Mrs. William Love, Jr. at AT 3-2005.

Members and friends of the St. Stephen's Young People's Fellowship are making plans to attend the four-week series on "Youth, Sex and Marriage" sponsored by the Central Contra Costa County Council of Churches for high school students. The series will begin Sunday, May 5, at 7:30 p.m., at St. Michael's and All Angels Episcopal church at 2900 Bonifacio street in Concord. Registration cost will be one dollar for the entire series.

On Wednesday, May 7, following the regular 10 a.m. Holy Communion service, ladies of the St. Stephen's Women's Auxiliary will have coffee in Hill Memorial Hall, before convening for their monthly general meeting, which this time will be of unusual interest. Members of the Diocesan Worship Team will be present to conduct a lively discussion on the power of prayer in our everyday lives. Mrs. William Sparling, past Diocesan Worship Chairman, will make introductory remarks, with Mrs. Harvey Skow, Oakland, Convocation Worship Chairman, pointing out six attacks on daily problems, and Mrs. Stanley McCaffery, wife of the vice-president of the University of California, demonstrating day-long application of religion to make living rewarding and more pleasant.

Brochures on summer conferences for youth are now available in the Rector's office. To be held at the Bishop's Ranch at Healdsburg, the camps will be held in four six-day sessions from June 15 to August 2. Reservations should be made early. June 15 to 21 will be for grades 10, 11 and 12; June 22 to 28, for 9th and 10th,

Christian Science

The importance of spiritual growth will be emphasized at Christian Science services Sunday.

Christian Science churches in this area are at 22 Orinda Highway, Orinda, 1347 Locust Street, Walnut Creek, and in Concord at the corner of Grant and Park streets. Christian Science Society of Pleasant Hill holds its services at the Hillcrest Congregational Church on Gregory Lane.

Keynoting the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Probation after Death" is the Golden Text from Jeremiah (17:7): "Blessed is the man that trusteth in the Lord, and whose hope the Lord is."

Selections to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include the following (406: 20-25): "We can, and ultimately shall, so rise as to avail ourselves in every direction of the supremacy of Truth over error, Lifeover death, and good over evil, and this growth will go on until we arrive at the fuliness of God's idea, and no more fear that we shall be sick and die."

From the Bible will be read the following (Luke 20:38): "For he is not a God of the dead, but o fthe living: for all live unto him."

Methodist

Sunday: Church School is at 9:30 a.m. with classes for all age groups. Worship Services at 9:30 a.m. and 11:00 a.m. with the Reverend Henry Page White preaching on the sermon topic "The Divine Sower." Job's Daughters of Bethel 218, Lafayette, will be participating in the service. The High School MYF will meet at 7 p.m. All high school young people are invited.

Monday: All Commissions of the Church will meet at 8 p.m.

Tuesday: Bible Class will meet at the home of Mrs. T. Erwin at 10 a.m.

Wednesday: 10 a.m. District Conference Meeting for the executive officers of the Women's Society of Christian Service in San Jose; 2 p.m. Prayer Group will meet at the home of Mrs. J. Inman-Kane. Anyone interested is cordially invited; 6:30 p.m. The officers of the Church will sponsor a Membership pot-luck dinner for new members and families.

Thursday: 6:30 p.m. Youth Choir Rehearsal; 8 p.m. Adult Choir Rehearsal.

Saturday: 8 p.m. Buck and Dear Club will meet.

Presbyterian

The Practice and Power of Prayer" is the subject of the message that the Rev. Carl Thomas, pastor of the Lafayette-Orinda Presbyterian Church, will bring to the congregation this Sunday.

The two services at 9:30 and 11 a.m. will be held in the new Fellowship Hall located at 49 Crest Road in Hidden Valley, Lafayette.

Church school sessions are held at these same hours. Nursery is maintained for children under three years of age.

The Billy Graham Crusade begins this Sunday afternoon at the Cow Palace. Bus Reservations for Tuesdays and Thursdays can be acquired by calling the Church office, or by seeing Lloyd Osgood in the foyer after the worship services.

"Lessons from the Perfect Father" is the theme for this Sunday evening's service. The Adult Fellowship, which meets at seven under the guidance of Mr. Thomas, is nearing the conclusion of the current series of messages on the Christian way to a happy home. Everyone is invited.

Lutheran

The subject of Pastor Hidy's sermon this Sunday is: "Modern Relativity and its Consequences."

Worship services are at 8 and 11 a.m. with Sunday School for all ages at 9:30 a.m.

The Adult Bible Class is at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. Bekedam at 9 Northwood Court, Orinda. There will be the baptism of children at the 11 a.m. worship service.

Representation? It Is Sometimes Hard to Find...

How does an area get representation from The Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors—the kind of representation it wants?

This can be a difficult question to answer, and there are many sides to the problem.

But there is one specific point that can be made, and it is respectfully suggested that the Board of Supervisors consider it.

The point is this:

Members of the board should respect the wishes of a supervisor when he brings up a matter concerning his own district.

How many times have residents seen their supervisor go to bat for them on a specific issue, only to be over-ruled by a 4-1 or 3-2 vote of the board?

It happens, unfortunately, with fairly monotonous regularity, and it is to be deplored.

In the first place, a supervisor should certainly be qualified to speak on matters concerning his own district.

He should be more familiar with the wishes of the people who live in his district than the other members of the board, and he should be in close contact with the general picture of his area.

To assume that this is not the case is to question the ability of the man elected to represent his district.

But when a supervisor recommends that a rezoning be denied, or that zoning of an area be limited to a certain pattern, and then to have that recommendation ignored by the rest of the board—well, it just doesn't make sense.

EACH SUPERVISOR should have enough respect for his fellow board members to value the opinions they have concerning matters in their own district.

In some cases in the past, the vote of the board has obviously been decided before the meeting. This is deplorable, but true. There is no other possible conclusion.

It is not exactly honest, nor does it reflect the best in government by a long shot to subject residents to this kind of treatment. Many have become thoroughly disgusted as they came to the supervisors' chambers, only to hear their representative give an impassioned plea for his district, and then to hear the voting go against him.

Equally difficult for residents to understand is the lack of respect which the board of supervisors frequently pays to the recommendations of the planning commission.

Many residents have spent long hours and many evenings, preparing suggestions reflecting the wishes of a community or area. They have taken these recommendations to the planning commission where the whole matter has been thrashed out, and, in many cases have received a favorable recommendation from the planners.

But the planning commission is only an advisory board. All too frequently, when the matter comes before the board of supervisors, all that work is thrown out the window as the board rules according to its dictates with little apparent concern for the recommendations of the planning commission.

The recent rezoning of the Happy Valley area in Lafayette is an example of the former instance, and many, many Pleasant Hill residents remember the Lindsay Nut rezoning in their area.

Each time an instance like this occurs, it destroys a little more of the people's faith in their elected board of supervisors. Each time a supervisor fails, or is not permitted to speak for his area, some of the dignity of the board falls by the wayside.

This is not to say that this sort of thing happens day after day. But one instance would be too often, and, unfortunately, it has happened more frequently.

It should always be remembered that the board of supervisors exists to carry out the wishes of the people—not to direct the people as to what is best for them.

It is sometimes easy to overlook such a simple, basic fact in the stress of everyday business and government.

But it is an important fact, and should be constantly in the mind of each supervisor.

Turn Forward the Hands of Time

THIS LOVELY LASS points out that the time has come to turn forward the hands on your clock one hour when you go to bed tomorrow night. It's Daylight Saving Time from here on out. The "government time" takes effect at 1 a.m. Sunday. Natch, at 1 it'll really be 2 a.m.

WOW! Pat Get's First Fan Letter and Learns Truth

By PAT PENDING

It has finally happened! I got my first fan mail! Thank you, Mrs. E. Lewis!

A columnist never knows just how lousy he really is until someone writes and tells him. Now, I must have at least three readers!

MRS. LEWIS, I did not mean to imply that everyone who voted against the School Tax was a drinker. After all, some persons may like powdered water. The event I described actually happened and the gentleman's remarks struck me as being rather ironic. If a person smokes cigarettes, he is paying more for the weed than he is in taxes for the schools.

The majority of taxpayers may be educated but they certainly don't show it. I fail to see why it is "undemocratic" to imply that the public lacks good judgment. Sometimes the public seems downright stupid.

Voters will elect a man to represent them in Congress for a period of six years and then promptly forget about him and what (if anything) he is doing until he is up for re-election.

VOTERS WILL be blithely apathetic to such a situation as apparently exists in the D.A.'s office.

If voters had real intelligence they would demand a Congressional investigation of this country's un-Constitutional banking system which is the direct cause of inflations and recessions; the huge National Debt; the high TAXES; and unemployment. Just ask anyone you know how our money comes into circulation in the FIRST INSTANCE and note the blank expression.

Voters complain about the taxes but they do not inquire how this nation has a debt of 275 billions when there NEVER HAS BEEN THAT AMOUNT OF ACTUAL MONEY TO BORROW.

Let's get down to specifics concerning our educational system. In my opinion we could save considerable money as follows:

1. In the present crisis, eliminate adult education. If adults haven't had the sense to learn square dancing, rug making, and how to paint when they were kids—to heck with them!

2. Have ONE master plan for school buildings so it would not be necessary to pay an architect every time a new school is needed.

3. Eliminate from curricula such classes as Home Making. Teaching a girl how to cook, sew, and manage a home should be her mother's problem. And, it doesn't take too long to learn how to operate a can opener — especially now that they have been electrified. Even I can do it!

How's this for a start, Mrs. Lewis?

SCHOOL BUSES

Dear Editor

Your editorial on Public Schools Week was most interesting. Your comments on the bus transportation arouse these comments from me.

It is very true that money spent on school buses is money lost to basic education. But there is another aspect to the concern of parents about buses.

Very few children do not live within walking distance of school. Many of us had to walk farther under worse climatic conditions. And walking is good excercise for all of us.

However, where are the sidewalks? Sidewalks should be a part of every paved road in this city and county. It is as much as a person's life is worth to have to walk along some of our streets, Oakland Boulevard, for instance. Nor is there a home in the entire area which would be lessened in beauty or value because a sidewalk paralleled the road.

And the cost could hardly equal the perpetual maintenence costs of school buses. How about some action on this matter from our new city council governmental organization?

It is very likely the concern of parents for the safety of their children on the way to school that arouses the interest in school buses.

Good sidewalks could do a tremendous job in solving the matter, for many years to come, not to mention the benefit to the entire community.

TENNIS THANKS

Dear Editor

This is the first chance I have had to thank you for your coverage of our Orinda Junior Tennis Tournament. Without your type of help this sort of event could be very difficult to promote and organize. Many of the members commented on your stories and what a great job you at The Sun did. Thanks again.

EXEMPTIONS

Dear Editor

The writer of the letter you quited in "Under The Sun" April 11 gave an excellent summary of the tax situation and the schools. My letter is not for publication as I do not want to receive any anonymous letters as I have received before. But you invited your readers views.

To a very great extent the defeat at the polls of school bonds is a protest in any raise in taxes.

To finance schools entirely from property taxes puts too much on the shoulders of the homeowners; and to point out how much people spend on luxuries in contrast to how much is spent on schools is not entirely good reasoning.

A great many people right in this area do not have liquor bills, nor fancy homes, nor European vacations, nor fine cars. It is not uncommon to read a want ad to take over a car just for the payments. If our country spends so much for sheer luxuries, then tax those luxuries for the schools.

Some other source of income must be found by the school districts than just property taxes, and they will never try to do so unless forced by defeats of school bond elections.

THERE IS ALSO another aspect to the situation locally, and it was brough out by a letter published by you, written by Mr. Kahn, in regard to the Veterans Tax Exemption Law. Last year 31,900 veterans tax exemptions were granted in Contra Costa County, and the tax assessor's office gave me that information.

At our tax rate that represents a very large sum of money. That law was passed many years ago in lieu of a bonus. But the VFW headquarters informs me that state bonuses are customarily paid only to veterans who were residents of those states at the time of their entry into service. And by all logic and right it should be that way with this tax exemption law.

As the law now stands, it is as outmoded as the horse and buggy. Exemptions are only economically possible when they are given to a very small percentage of the taxpayers, and you know that in many areas around here, veterans outnumber the ordinary taxpayers by a great deal. Politicians are well aware of this situation but are afraid to correct the inequities. It is a problem for the state legislature to solve but they need a real shove from back home, and I have written to our local representatives, and Mr. Doyle has admitted it is very much of a problem in this area.

It is hardly a coincidence that school districts which are in dire financial straits are mostly areas where there are the largest concentration of veteran homeowners, mostly those who were not residents of California when they were in active service.

The above paragraphs may not contain a complete reason for the schools dilemma, but they do contain a good part of it. I want to make c lear that I am not against all exemptions; but the requirements should be stiffer.

We have three children, so we are interested in their education. But we also know what we can afford. And we are far from convinced that they will really suffer if we vote against raising our tax rate.

"RIGHT" AND "WRONG"

Dear Editor

We are, of course, all entitled to our opinions. But the editor of any newspaper, because he reaches the minds of more people than most of us do, has an unusual responsibility. He should find out all the facts possible before he expresses his opinions. If he does not do so, he may find himself representing, instead of the truth, the point of view of wrong against right.

Last week's editorial, in favor of the increase in manufacturing acreage in Moraga being urged by Utah Construction Company and currently under consideration by the County Planning Commission, might never have been written if the editor had taken pains to visit Moraga, to see what a spoilage of a beautiful residential valley will be effected if Utah has its way, and to interview the residents of Moraga whose homes can only be adversely affected by the intrusion of such elements as Utah will inevitably invite.

The editor of a newspaper should unquestionably seek the truth, and above all he should strive to preserve the beauty of the total residential community which he serves.

In aiding the cause of the Utah Construction Company, the editor of The Sun may just possibly be paving the way for a future gigantic slum that will work its way from Moraga to Orinda, and into Lafayette, and up to the editor's own doorstep.

Is the editor positive that he is on the right side of this? Or, if he is not capable of seeking to find the "right" side, is he sure that he is really acting in his own best interests?

The Sun Changes Policy On Endorsing Candidates

By Herman Silverman

Last week I climbed on a soap box in this column and yakked about the coming election — that you should read, talk, study attend candidates' meeting, so that you can vote intelligently at the coming elections.

It is no easy task to vote intelligently. It takes work and The Sun is finding this out.

What do I mean?

Well—for the past 23 years, The Sun has made it a practice NOT to endorse candidates at election time. As editor for nearly 11 years, I have contended that this paper should endorse candidates only when a dangerous situation arises. Thus, we have recommended candidates in only 4 races.

The reason why . . .

This policy was based on the premise, "Why should we tell you how to vote just because we are newspapermen? If we were grocers, doctors or lawyers, we would not do so."

Over the years, however, some doubts as to the validity of this philosophy entered my mind. The Sun editorial staff members have discussed this at length and they unanimously agree that the paper should endorse candidates. Last year we discussed this idea in editorials and columns. The Sun asked for readers' views and with one exception. All who answered were in favor of The Sun making recommendations.

Exhibit 1, 2, 3, 4

We weighed the evidence very carefully.

1. Newspapermen come in contact with politicians, candidates and office holders and have an opportunity to become acquainted with them and/or their policies, weaknesses, abilities. Men in other businesses do not have this same opportunity.

2. When a newspaper recommends a candidate and clearly labels it as an "endorsement or recommendation," the newspaper is not telling you how to vote. It is only a recommendation.

3. Voters do not necessarily follow newspaper recommendations. Voters are independent people and that is the way it should be. An endorsement by some newspapers sometimes reacts against the recommended candidate. Much depends upon the newspaper.

4. If there are two good candiadtes running, a newspaper need not endorse one over the other.

And this year . . .

This year The Sun will present recommendations in the primary election and/or general elections. For the June 3 primary election, endorsements will be presented for those races with only two candidates. A simple majority (1 vote in fact) will decide in these races. In the general election next November, THE Sun will endorse in most of the county races. At present there are no plans to recommend for the major state offices.

I am well aware that The Sun's new endorsement policy carries with it grave responsibilities. It is serious business. If The Sun were rabidly Republican or Democrat, it would be easy. We could do what a few papers do and merely endorse all of one party or the other. The Sun is not Republican or Democrat; The Sun is independent.

We have long given up any hope of keeping the Republicans or Democrats (or non-partisan candidates) happy before election time. It cannot be done. One party may get a longer story one week than the other party. The other party's feelings are hurt or they may become very angry, having forgotten that they had a longer story the preceeding week. We merely attempt to be as fair as is humanly possible within the bounds of good journalism. We will not print a story if it has little or no meaning to the readers.

But I have wandered from the subject.

What happens now . . .

Since deciding to endorse, I have spent many hours talking to candidates and political observers. This is time-consuming but most worthwhile and interesting. Before the November election, I will have met all candidates.

Along with you readers, I will watch these candidates in action at the Sun Candidates' Nights. I will read their literature and stories and read the answers to questions that The Sun sends them.

The Sun will endorse candidates only after the most careful consideration.

Now It's Time for SEX

By BOB RAPIDA

The time has come to talk about "Sex."

Not the usual form of sex which we find in advertisements, novels based on small towns or the girls in the short shorts, but rather sex in the form of that which draws interest as far as emotion is concerned.

FOR EXAMPLE, we have political campaigns which appeal to the bulk of the public: the race for sheriff, district attorney, councilman or supervisor. These races stir the imagination; start the grass root movements; bring about cries of justice for "Mother, Home and The Great American Way of Life."

These campaigns seem to interest everyone from the civics class to the farmer in the hills who only comes out twice a year to buy supplies and to vote.

These are the "sexy" races.

YET, WHEREVER there is a hot race there must also be an opposite. In politics, there is the sexless race: the race for judge; superintendent of schools; assessor; auditor; clerk-recorder; coroner, public administrator, public guardian and tax collector-treasurer.

Of these "Minor" campaigns there is only a contest for three judgeships, county superintendent of schools and assessor.

There are at least 9 candidates for the Walnut Creek Justice Court. Two candidates for the Concord Municipal Court and two for Superior Court, Department VI.

Who could care about these contests other than the people who are running; the attorney who must practice in the courts and the friends of the candidates?

There's no public appeal to a race for judge.

IN THE SUPERINTENDENT of schools race there are five candidates. The victor will be in a key position to guide the future of every school district by seeking legislative aid for the entire county and in establishing administrative procedures for all county school district.

But then again, who cares!!

The assessor's actions affect each and every household in the county. Not only are homeowners affected, but tremendous effects are felt by industry and commercial interests. Every taxpayer should carefully study the qualifications of each of the aspirants to this office.

But, this is another "cut and dry" job, so who cares!!

THE REST OF the so-called sexless campaigns are not contests. The incumbent has no opposition, but still we must not forget these are elective offices and everyone should be interested in the activities of each of the offices and in the performance of elected officials in these offices.

Don't let the glitter of a campaign blind you June 3 when you are voting. Don't fall into the trap of just throwing your priceless mark next to the incumbent's name.

IT DOESN'T take much time to investigate the qualifications of each of the candidates in both the "hot" and "cold" races. Don't be afraid to vote for a non-incumbent to replace a long-time official if he is better qualified or can do a better job.

Let's forget sex and get down to the matter at hand.

Vote for qualifications and ability.

Never vote for pomp, circumstance and flashy bumper strips.

EDUCATION

DEAR EDITOR:

All of this excitement about science in our public schools, caused by the Russian "Sputnik" (actually developed by captive German scientists) is foolishness.

Our schools should be "geared" to the average mentality student, and flexible enough to take care of those a little below and above average.

For those who are exceptionally brilliant (who are in the minority), the state, federal government or private institutions, should arrange for the necessary facilities, which may allow them to advance as rapidly as appears expedient.

In my opinion, those who are initiating the movement toward forcing more and harder work in the public schools are not aware of the difficulty of keeping children in school.

If the work is made too difficult, they get behind and become discouraged, which is the major problem when it comes to getting them to continue school after they have no further legal responsibility.

It is more important that a large number of our children obtain as much education as possible, rather than "gear" the school system to the end that we develop an abundance of scientists from our "crop" of abnormal students.

Our schools may not be exactly what we desire, and we need more and better teachers, but certainly, upsetting a school system, which has been built up over a period of more than a hundred years, is not the answer to more scientists, or for the betterment of the majority of our people.

The Russian people as a whole have been overrated, and the propaganda regarding the number of scientists, even if true, is no indication that their school system for the masses is built up predominately on a science basis.

History does not support the theory, that a nation can in less than a generation, diverge from an underprivileged, poorly educated people, to an underprivileged nation of science intellectuals.

Exceptional students should be given scholarships, to meet the needs of industry, government and for teachers, but our school system must be spared from this major change.

Name withheld by request.

PICTURE

DEAR EDITOR:

I was heartily disgusted to see that gruesome picture of a murdered man in your paper. What kind of community service do you call that?

You do not usually print that sort of thing.

It is not only the type of picture we don't want our children to see, but is especially unkind to the man's family and friends.

Mrs. Mary Jane Goodban

Letters to The Editor

Dear Editor,

Having read the interesting communication in "Letters," from V. A. Endersby, opposing Christmas programs in the public schools, I wonder whether I may be permitted another word on the subject.

Methinks those who oppose these programs protest too much. At the time a woman in this area lodged her protest, other women in San Francisco and in Marin, were lodging similar protests.

The woman in San Francisco said her children were being reared in the Jewish faith, and that being "exposed" to a Christmas play "confused" them, and they brought their "confusion" into the home.

THIS IS nonsense. Children do not confuse so easily.

Neither do they become conbiased or bigoted but their parents make them so. I have noted no confusion on the part of my children upon realization that many people are of different faiths than ours, or indeed, that some adhere to no faith at all.

To imply that James Dent, Superintendent of Schools, is guilty of sinister motives in permitting Christmas plays in the schools, is not only unfair, it is ridiculous. Whether or not one accepts Jesus as God, the fact remains that His life and teachings made history.

Who can deny that He introduced a way of life—a philosophy of the brotherhood of man, that was absolutely revolutionary?

MR. ENDERSBY states that it has been advocated that no citizens, except Christians, be allowed to hold public office. By whom has this been advocated?

Surely he cannot be referring to a letter sent recently to a San Francisco newspaper by a person who was obviously an ignorant, religious fanatic, and whose views were promptly disavowed by a leader of his own sect?

A deluge of indignant answers to the paper took care of that crackpot pretty well, I thought. Personally, though, I did not think his ridiculous letter worthy the dignity of answer.

Mr. Endersby suggests the schools introducing other historical programs, telling the stories, of, say Buddha and Krishna. Why not? At appropriate times, the stories of Moses, Mohammed and Confucious might also prove interesting.

If the kids have any brains, they will eventually be reading of these famous people, anyway. And I would anticipate no "confusion," either (on the part of the children, that is.)

RESULTS!

Dear Editor:

Never have I had such results from an ad placement than when I listed my potters wheel and kiln.

Two hours after delivery of The Sun Shopping News I had sold both items.

Rest assured if ever I have any other items I wish to sell, I will list them in The Sun. I had five calls about the wheel and kiln, and know from the disappointed voices that I could have sold them many times over.

Mrs. John C. Ellis.

Meeting Set

The 1957 Ruth Association of the East Bay, Order of Eastern Star, will hold it's April meeting at the home of Helen Ghalmer, 2927 California Street, Oakland, today.

Sun Society

DESPITE ONE OF THE season's heaviest storms, over 200 volunteers and members of Guide Dogs for the Blind, Inc., came from 11 counties to attend the St. Francis luncheon to open the 1958 drive. Bad weather, however, forced the cancellation of the yacht tour which was scheduled to follow the luncheon. Here (left to right) Mrs. Sara Jones, Walnut Creek, Mrs. Jerry Walker, Orinda and Mrs. James F. Bailey admire the rain-checks for the yacht tour.

On The Lighter Side

by INA BLIESNER • YE 4-3818

SUCH goings on! Dances, dances and more dances! For volume (which is exactly what was hoped for) and gaiety—apparently the Cal Alum night was without equal.

This affair grows more popular each season with more and more groups gathering in homes and local "eateries" preceding the dance. The Norman Watsons invited sever alcouples to their home as did the Gerald Balls and Robert Wisecarvers who joined forces and served a delicious buffet supper to their friends. Spotted here and there at this "Spring Fling" which was held at the Walnut Creek Elk's Club were Dr. and Mrs. James Lynch and Dr. and Mrs. Miles Hudson, the Pete Elliots, Dick Ericksons, Gorrill Butlers, Don Kientzs, Phil Knoxs, Dick Davids, Fred Vanns, Terry Rings, Al Mesters, Bill Harpers, Bob Odells and Dick Knights.

Then there was the more dressy Seabury Club spring dance at the Diablo Country Club. The ladies looked so lovely in their "breezy" frocks. Beautiful Mrs. Sam Conti was wearing a two-piece beige cocktail outfit. Over her shining black hair she wore an eyecatching beige evening veil trimmed with tiny bows. Mrs. Ralph Hanna wore a glamorous silk printed sheath. The colors—blues and greens.

A wide green cumberbund encircled her TINY waist. A stark white pique frock which was accented with a rhinestone-sprinkled black spray applique looked stunning on Mrs. John Maddux. Mrs. George Nash chose a bouffant tissue model, printed in shades of blues, greens and pinks.

Strictly formal, and lots of fun

Strictly formal was the "Hill and Dale" dinner-dance at the Orinda Country Club. This, reportedly, was the best of this year's series. Many pre-dance parties were held—one of the largest was given by Betsy and Howard Inman in their Hidden Valley home. Some of the dance-loving couples attending were Messrs. and Mmes. Ramsay Underwood, Jack Sexson, Jim MacDonald, Ted Sawyer, Ed Barker, Kreite Baldwin and Don Norman—this latter couple, busy committee members, were incharge of the no-host table.

On the following Sunday the ever popular "Two Ball Foursome" tournament was underway at the Club—followed by the traditional dinner-dance, always a full capacity occasion. A few who were noticed "hashing over" the day's events were Shirley and "Hi" Hennings, Peggy and Gene Payne, Pat and Don Doten and Bobbye and Bill MacGuire.

Incidentally, one of the highlights of the evening was the presentation, by chairman Thelma Sweet, to stunned recipient, Bobbye McGuire, of a SPECIAL award in the form of a gold tee. This was in recognition of Bobbye's many years of UNsuccessful golf. (These were her words, so I'm safe—I HOPE!

Hey, Swing that gal . . .

Most informal and fun was the dance labeled "Calico Capers" which was presented at the new Concord Elk's Club by the Hummingbird Unit of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center. Bright colorful cottons were in evidence everywhere as couples whirled about to the strains of Jimmy Gordon's gay music. The envy of the group was Mr. and Mrs. William Conolly of Concord who ended up with a trip to Carmel. The Connollys will take their jaunt to the lovely seaside city sometime this spring.

Among those who held pre-dance festivities were Eunice and Paul Kilkenny and Camille and Robert Simpson who entertained many of their friends.

Also inviting guests for a sumptious buffet dinner were Frances and Horcae Pratt and Joan and Joseph Madrigali.

Now to a bit of daytime news. Seems that Mr. and Mrs. Thad Lee, Jr. of Concord have been transferred to Seattle, much to their friend's sorrow. Mrs. Lee has been a very active member of the "Flamingos" and was a most successful chairman of their Christmas Card project last year.

Five fellow members of the Unit combined in honoring Mrs. Lee with a bridge-luncheon at which a shower of lovely handkerchiefs was presented. The afternoon was spent at Mrs. Norman Gibson's home and the other hostesses were the Mmes. George Bruns, Fred C. Blumberg, Richard Dole and Charles Bowers.

Guests were the Mmes. James Howe (who took first prize honors), Walter Reed, J., Robert Anderson, Harold Lind, Richard Schimmel and Eugene Ingalls. Some of the Tanager Unit's members have really been on the go.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Caldwell and their children, Bill and Carolyn, spent the Easter vacation in Palm Springs. The Caldwells entertained April 18 in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Estes who are leaving for Iran tomorrow for a TWO year stay.

Just wandering down south

Emerald Smith and her son, Steve, spent the same holidays in Ensenada—but made visits to Marineland and Disneyland enroute. Also touring that "wonder-world" at the same time were the Cecil Cantrills with their children, Steve, Bryan and Cathy. The Ernest Starkmans, with offspring—Roz, Sue, Greg and Patt, were in the Southern Califonria visiting throng. They visited the L. P. Rihcardsons, formerly of Lafayette, who now live in Whittier.

Not to be outdone, they also toured Disneyland, in spite of Susan's full leg cast and crutches—thanks to the aid of a rented wheel chair. (Wouldn't have been surprised to learn that it was pushed by the seven dwarfs—and I'll bet the Starkmans could have wished that true).

The "Larks" will hold it's last meeting next month—and then will relax for the summer. Certaianly that unit deserves a well earned rest, for the past year has been a tremendous success, both financially and constructively. Of course the "Mardi Gras" was the big venture—but other projects have been in progress steadily. The members are grateful that they are able to be of such help to the Center and have fun at the same time.

The fledglings take over . . .

Right now those charming "Junior Larks" are the busy ones. Their luncheon-fashion show is coming up May 3. It will be held at El Nido. More on that later.

Some doings here and there—about Lafayette people.

Marge and Ed Ageno were on hand (driving over in their gorgeous new pink Cadillac) for the opening Giant game. Come June or July, new residents in Lafayette will be Evelyn and Hal Lavick of Piedmont. Gladys and Jim Shirrey have returned from a leisurely 5 day jaunt through the Joshua Tree Country. Lou and Jim King are off to the Kentucky Derby on May 3rd.

The L. P. (Maryetta) Capras are visiting in New York. There are two brand new residents in Lafayette—born on the same day. Pat and Paul Kapci became the parents of a third boy and the J. E. Adams, Jr., brought their family roster to five with the arrival of a girl.

YOU'D BETTER BE thinking about plans for the Walnut Branch's annual desert-fashion show—"Festival of Flowers and Fashions." As usual it will be held in the Howard Gardens and, as always, it will be one of four area's outstanding events. The date—Tuesday, May 13, the time—2 o'clock. There will be some precious youngsters modeling as well as the usual array of lovely models from the different branches of Children's Hospita lof the East Bay. Had hoped to describe a most interesting afternoon thanks to the Mary Doyle unit's "Drama Tea"—but guess that will have to wait until next week.

Omega Nu's Entertain Rushees

Alpha Lambda Chapter of Omega Nu held its first annual "rush" function of the season on April 15 at the home of Mrs. Theodore P. Matthiesen in Pleasant Hill.

Following the dinner that was served to 30 members and guests, chapter president Mrs. Walter Hutchinson introduced the committee chairman.

Mrs. Edward Slater outlined the chapter's activities and participation in the sorority's unified charity. Mrs. Slater is grand senior vice president of the Grand Council of Omega Nu.

Members of the group then entertained their guests by modeling hats that depicted their husbands occupation and by means of pantomine related their own business activities prior to their marriage.

The guests were then invited to introduce themselves by using the same mediums, adding to the gaiety of the evening affair, said Mrs. Matthiesen.

The honored rushee guests of the evening were Mrs. Louis Sacconaghi of Lafayette, Mrs. A. M. Hanks and Mrs. Jack Setzer of Pleasant Hill, Mrs. L. R. Roberts of Concord, Mrs. John Urmson of Orinda and Mrs. Mel Harris of Walnut Creek.

May 4 was set as the date that the sorority members would honor their mothers at a Mother's Day Brunch to be held at Chubby Humble's Pioneer Inn in Clayton.

Heidi Unit Sets Slate; Will Elect

Heidi Chapter of the Children's Home Society will meet for it's monthly bridge luncheon at the home of Mrs. Gilbert Myers, Los Palos Drive, Lafayette, Monday.

Hostesses at this noontime party will be Mrs. E. M. Matson and Mrs. S. DeAngelis. All proceeds from these luncheons go to the C. H. S. which is a member of the United Crusade.

At the April regular business meeting, Mrs. Gilbert Myers, nominating chairman reported the following nominations: President, Mrs. Glenn Stubblefield; Vice-President, Mrs. J. L. Hicks; Treasurer, Mrs. Andrew Young; Recording Secretary, Mrs. Charles Morrilli; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Ledru Frank and Parliamentarian, Mrs. James A. McCormick. This slate will be voted on at the May business meeting.

Mrs. R. G. Falk, chairman of the "Heidi Ho" spring party, is holding meetings to get this annual affair organized by May 25th, timed from 4 to 7, and held in the Glenn Stubblefield gardens on Glenn Road, Lafayette. The theme will be western and members and their husbands will be attired in old time western garb.

Mrs. Earl Plescia, sewing and home representative chairman, each month and baby dresses are is holding sewing meetings once being made for the Children's Home. Members gather from 10 to 3 on these days.

Medic Wives Are Planning Dinner Dance

The annual dinner dance sponsored by the East Bay and West Bay Permanente Medical Wives Auxiliaries will be held May 10.

The Peacock Court of the Mark Hopkins Hotel has been reserved Music will be by the Jimmy Blass Orchestra.

Table decorations will carry out the theme of the Bay Bridge as the connecting link between the East Bay and West Bay Auxiliaries social event.

The West Bay Group plans to make small sail boats and light houses which will be set in water and banked with spring flowers.

Those working on the decor will be headed by chairman Mrs. M. Judson Mackay and Mmes Charles Lobel, John L. Lovitt, Jay Adams and William Freedman.

More than 200 invitations will be sent out by the East Bay Group, social chairman Mrs. H. Donald Grant and her committee, Mesdames Donald W. Ash and Jack Gilkey.

Suburban Women Plan Spring Fete

"A Night to Remember" has been chosen as the theme for the annual spring dance of the Lafayette Suburban Women's Club. It will be held on May 3 at the IDES Hall in Walnut Creek.

There will be a dinner, dancing games, and refreshments. Proceeds will go to the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation.

The ways and means committee under the chairmanship of Mrs. George Haber is hard at work to make the evening a success.

Decorating will be under Mesdames Ralph Young and James Norton, food by Mrs. William Banks and Hubert Christman, orchestra under Mrs. Charles Donero.

Games are being planned by Mesdames Carl Huffaker and Mrs. Charles Kennett, cocktail party by Mrs. Sal Vallelunga, and Mrs. Robert Hegy and Mrs. Robert Bartak are in charge of reservations.

Sally Fleager Weds Duncan Tonningsen

Sally Fleager of Orinda became the bride of Dr. R. Duncan Tonnigsen in ceremonies April 12 at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church.

The Rev. Albert Lucas officiated and William M. Fleager gave his daughter in marriage.

Mrs. Smith C. Anderson Jr. (Ann Fleager) of Alameda was her sister's matron of honor and bridesmaids were Mrs. Herman S. Dickey of Berkeley, Mrs. Bryce Reimer of Lafayette and Sue Stevenson, Sally's cousin, of Piedmont.

Attendants wore pink chiffon dresses, with pink satin headbands and pink carnation spray bouquets. Sally's dress was of lace over tulle, made with a full skirt and worn with a crown made from her grandmother's bridal lace. This held her double tulle veil in place and she carried orchids, stephanotis and valley lillies.

For the wedding, the bride's mother chose a sea foam linen sheath.

A reception followed in the family home on El Sueno in Orinda. The bridegroom's mother wore a dusty rose lace and chiffon dress and both mothers wore pink orchid corsages.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Duncan Tonningson of Alameda are the parents of the bridegroom, who had Hart S. Smith, of the Encinal City, as best man. Ushers were Richard Janusch and David Mott of Alameda and Jon Clendenin of San Francisco.

A tthe Fleager home, wedding guests congregated on the patio after meeting the bridal couple.

The new Mrs. Tonningsen is an alumnus of San Jose State College, where she was Kappa Kappa Gamma.

Dr. Tonningsen is a graduate of the University of California College of Dentistry and a member of Chi Psi social fraternity and Xi Psi Phi dental fraternity.

The couple will live in Alameda.

Big Offies To Roar on Pacheco Oval

Former Indianapolis winner Johnnie Parsons will be heading a group of Indianapolis drivers who'll be using tomorrow night's 100-lap USAC National Championship midget auto race at Contra Costa Speedway as a final prep for next month's Memorial Day Classic.

Managing Director J. C. Agajanian expects more than 35 drivers to be on hand when qualifying starts at 7 for his eight event program at the fast quarter-mile Pacheco dirt oval. He has posted a purse of $2000 against 40 per cent of the gate to ensure a top field.

Besides Parsons, the winner of the 1950 "500", other Indianapolis drivers who'll be on hand with their powerful Offy midgets include a bay area pair, Earl Motter, Pacifico, and Johnny Baldwin, San Carlos, as Billy Garrett among others.

Among the other top entries is "Bullet" Joe Garson, the former Pacific Coast midget champion, who earlier this month won the 100-lap feature at Garden in southern California, despite starting 17th in a field of 18. He turned 50 last month, and is second in the current National midget point standings.

Among the top bay area entries are "Iron" Mike McGreevy, Hayward, who was just nosed out by Baldwin for the BCRA indoor midget crown; Ed Normi, Petaluma; Dickie Reese, Berkeley; Gene Gurney, Hayward; Tommy Copp, San Bruno, and the 1957 BCRA outdoor midget king, Bob Cortner.

Jack London, co-promoter with Agajanian, and head of Bay Cities Racing Association, reports that the Contra Costa oval is in top shape for the first visit this season of the USAC drivers. He and Agajanian presented a show for the USAC Offy midgets last October and Indianapolis veteran Johnny Boyd drove the London Offy to victory in the 100-lap feature.

Don Spikers Garner Win

The Acalanes Dons won the varsity and Bee meets held at Pacifica April 16.

It was a three way affair with Acalanes, Pacifica and Pleasant Hill taking part.

THE DON VARSITY scored a clean sweep in the pole vault with George Hearne and Dave Williamson tieing for first at 10'. Mike Latone and Niles Searles tied for third. Pleasant Hill copped the relay in 1:34.

Dewaine Stults was a double winner for Acalanes taking the shot at 46' 2" and copping the discus at 120' 5".

Lou Salazar of Pleasant Hill won the broad jump with a leap of 20' 7" and took second in the hundred.

Final tally gave Acalanes 72½; Pleasant Hill, 59, and Pacifica, 8½.

In the Bee meet Coach Jack Carhart's Don lettermen had things much their own way as they swept to a win with 70 points. Pleasant Hill wound up with 42 and Pacifica 28.

HILL OF PACIFICA was a two time winner taking the discus and shot with excellent marks of 130' 11" and 46' 9".

Other first place winners were Cliff Salazar (PH) 9.8 in the 70 yard highs; Tom oCoper (A) in the 660 yard run 1:35; Joe Jackson (PH) in the 75 yard dash at :8.4; Fred Lecari (A) in the 330—:39.3; Doyle Turner (A) 14.5 in theh 120 yard lows; Bob Rinne with a 16.3 in the 150 yard run.

Jeff Warner with a 3:40 in the 1320 yard run, Steve Lientz with a 5' 5" in the high jump and Bob Ballen (PH) with 10' in the pole vault.

Athletics Cut Rouses Sports Editor's Ire

ERWIN MATTSON

I see where the Oakland schools are contemplating doing away with interscholastic athletics next year if a new try at a bond issue fails in June.

I will admit I am prejudiced but it hardly seems right to take them away.

Athletics have value in many ways and do much to bind a school together by means of that indefinable thing known as school spirit which promotes unity and cooperative effort.

Participants and spectators both receive benefits and many educational advantages are derived from taking part.

One of the things that comes up is expense. Actually the cost to the school is small as student body funds and derived from game income and student body cards.

That is particularly true at Acalanes where most of the money comes from student body funds—a good deal of it from night football.

THE LIGHTS WERE paid for by public subscription and all of it paid back in a period of less than four years. Since then thousands of dollars have been derived from football, while basketball has also contributed its share, although on a limited basis due to gym capacity.

Las Lomas is in the process of paying off their lights and while they have had their problems next year will pay off a big chunk and it won't take too much longer to get the job done and then it will go a long ways toward paying for the sports program.

☆ ☆ ☆

THE DISTRICT DOES contribute in the way of transportation, protective equipment and balls.

All game suits, official and sundry expenses in general are paid out of student body funds.

Transportation costs in the local league will drop to a new low next year as travel distances are extremely short.

Somehow Oakland threatened action doesn't seem quite right—it penalizes the kids who for the most part are tops; their scholastic standards must be good in order to play.

Somehow it seems that if a cut has to be made it would be made with those who do little in school and care even less. It might not be a bad idea to set up a minimum standard of scholastic achievement and require it to be reached in order to qualify for high school.

Don Raqueters Whip Diablo

The Acalanes racquet wielders stayed undefeated in league play making it two in a row when they defeated Diablo 5-2.

Doug Freeman (A) defeated Per Mjelva (D) 6-3, 6-0; Roy Rocca (A) whipped Gordon Knapp (D) 6-3, 8-6; John Freeman (A) defeated Ralph Plantig (D) 6-3, 6-1; Webb Hadden (D) defeated Tom Beatty (A) 5-7, 6-1 and Dan Funk (A) defeated Joe Partnasky (D) 6-1, 6-2.

In doubles play, Neal Freeman and Mike McDonald of Acalanes defeated Mjelva and Knapp 6-3, 3-6, 7-5.

Plantz - Hadden (D) defeated Louis Smith-Carlos Remiguel (A) 6-1, 8-6.

Orinda Junior Girl Netters Play Saturday

The Orinda Country Club Junior Girls Tennis Team, will be traveling to the California Tennis Club in San Francisco Saturday, April 26.

The highly-rated California Girls Tennis team should provide a good workout for the Orinda contingent.

This will be the first match between Orinda and the California Tennis Club and Kevin Merrick, Tennis Professional at Orinda, hopes the girls will obtain much needed experience from the match.

The Orinda Team will be made up of Judy Hopkins, Diane Traverso, Cherie Sharp, Sue Skaggs, Sue Rochester, Sally Skaggs, Babbie Hawksley and Lonnie Martin.

Gerry Hopkins and Bart Rocca will also make the trip to play an exhibition match against Jan Kucera and Gordon Miller, the number-one doubles team in the Boys' 13 and Under, in Northern California.

Martinez Relays Are Tomorrow

Tomorrow finds track teams of the area turning their attention Martinez-way where the Martinez Relays will be under way starting at 1 p.m.

It's a relay in every sense of the word as four men compete in every event. In the running it's the one winding up first at the tape, while in the field it's what the combined efforts of the four men produce.

For example, in the pole vault if all clear 12 feet, the score is 48 and they are judged on that basis.

Swimming hits divisional finals today at Las Lomas starting at 3:30 p.m.

Finalists qualified at Pleasant Hill Park Pool last Saturday.

Las Lomas is a heavy favorite to cop both varsity and division titles and to go on to win the league meet of both divisions which will be at Las Lomas with trials on Wednesday and finals Friday. From there the next step is the North Coast on May 9 and 10 at Santa Clara.

Baseball and tennis wind up their first round of play next week. Las Lomas looms as the baseball winner of the first half while Acalanes has a good chance in ten insalong with Las Lomas and Miramonte, as the dark horse.

The tennis and baseball schedule for the week:

TUESDAY—Acalanes at Los Lomas
Pittsburg at Antioch
Pacifica at Pleasant Hill
Mt. Diablo at Miramonte
THURSDAY—Acalanes at Pleasant Hill
Mt. Diablo at Pacifica
Las Lomas at Pittsburg
Antioch at Miramonte

Rams Drop Pitt Nine 5-4 In Ninth Inning Hero Play

Coach Lyle Palmer's Pleasant Hill Rams did it the hard way April 17 when they came from behind for a ninth inning, 5-4, win over the Pittsburg Pirates.

The game, played at the steel city, found the home club ahead 4-2 going into the top of the seventh.

The Pleasant Hill club came through in theh clutch when Dave Bartels doubled, Bill Locatelli singled, Jim Mapes walked, Catcher George Adams hit a high fly to center with Bartles tagging up on third and scoring. Stu Robinson singled to score Locatelli and that ended the inning's scoring throwing the ball game into overtime play.

The issue was decided in the ninth when Locatelli walked and Maples took the hero's role with a single and Locatelli scored on a fielder's choice.

Pleasant Hill had scored single runs in the first and third while Pitt collected one in the first and three in the second.

The win kept the Rams undefeated in league play, while Pitt has one win and two defeats.

Enter Touranment

Mrs. G. A. Somers and Mrs. Frank Fee, both of Orinda, were entered in the qualifying round Monday of the Women's Golf Association of California championship tournament at Monterey Peninsula Country Club.

Monument Takes Woman Bowling League Honors

Monument Catering took two games and total pins from Kay's Coffee Shop to win the championship of the Tuesday night Women's Handicap League at Moument Bowl.

Trophies will be awarded Tuesday at a banquet at Marchetti's in Antioch.

Two of Monument's girls placed first and third in sweepstakes winnings also. Ardie Harrington was first with a 684 score and Ida Kutz was third with 595. Sally Kilgore of Yellow Cab was second with an even 600.

Novice Tennis Tournament Set

The Second Annual Orinda Junior Novice Tennis Tournament, will be held at the Orinda Country Club, April 30 to May 3.

This tournament will be designed for beginning boys and girls from ages 10 to 14.

None of the Orinda Country title-holders will be participating in this tournament. Kevin Merrick, Tennis Professional at the Club, has had many up-and-coming Junior players developed by this type of event.

Judy Hopkins, Diane Traverso, Cherie Sharp, Sue Skaggs, Dick Stark, Doug Freeman, and Gerry Hopkins are just a few who have been developed this last year, through this type of play.

Entries close April 28, and should be phoned in to Merrick at the Tennis Shop.

Bad driving conditions prevailed in less than 15 percent of the fatal highway accidents in the U. S. in 1957.

Red Devils Stomp Acalanes Nine 2-0

The Mt. Diablo Red Devils scored two runs in the second frame after two were out and that was the sum total of the scoring in the Don-Diablo game as neither club could dent home plate the rest of the way.

The league game, played at Diablo, April 17, found the Devils' second baseman, Bud Peebles, hitting an all important triple with two on.

The Dons collected but two safeties on a single by Dave Bojarsky in the third and a single by George McMeans in the second.

Diablo collected a total of five hits with Gary Hansen going way on the mound for the Dons to Mike Kritscher who went until the sixth when Phil Leal took over with two down to retire the side.

Dan Burney did the catching for the Devils while Dave Bojarsky was behind the mask for Acalanes.

Crescent Polomen Drop Menlo Park In Final Second

Trailing six to three going into the final period, Crescent Jewelers rallied for three goals to nip Menlo Park, 9-8, in the finals of the James Colt Memorial Polo Tournament Sunday at Fleischmann Field, Santa Barbara.

Crescent captain Vic Graber of Orinda said his team has been invited to play in Mexico this weekend.

Dr. Billy Linfoot, leading Crescent scorer with five goals, pushed one through with just two seconds remaining to give the locals their win.

Mrs. Francis Takes Tourney

Mrs. J. R. Francis won low net honors in the April 17 Diablo Country Club Ladies Day event with an 86-16-70.

Winners in class A competition were Mrs. Carl Little, 92-20-70; Mrs. Phil Kane, 90-17-73; and Mrs. Yolande Martinet, 90-16-74.

Class B winners were Mrs. Richard Bartell, 96-23-73; Mrs. A. M. Kaiser, 95-21-74; and Mrs. R. L. Pratt, 98-24-74.

Orinda Tennis Club To Meet

The Orinda Country Club Senior Tennis Team will play the Orinda Tennis Association on May 4 at the Country Club courts.

This match should be one of the tennis highlights in this area, since these two teams played a six to six deadlock in their last outing in November.

Both teams have many outstanding Senior players, namely Dr. Carl Helmholz, Eugene Reid, Charles Ivy, William Gilmore, Martha Namanny, Beatrice Martin and Maryly Martin.

Lunch will be served to both teams on the newly-constructed observation deck overlooking the center court.

The matches are open to the public, and bleacher seats are available to spectators.

Manager Rigney Hospitalized At Peralta

Manager Bill Rigney of the Giants was released last Friday from Peralta Hospital and taken to his Walnut Creek home by his wife, Paula.

Rigney was hospitalized with an attack of "nervous stomach" following the 7-4 victory by his Giants over the Dodgers in Seals Stadium.

Rigney rejoined the San Francisco National League team in Los Angeles for the series with the Dodgers Saturday.

Enjoy MORE POWER

WITH ADEQUATE WIRING!

If you are using extension cords and double sockets in your home, your wiring is not adequate. This is probably not news to you, but you may not know how easily it can be fixed and how little it will amount to in your monthly budget.

All you have to do is make one phone call to double the enjoyment of your home and get rid of the nuisances and hazards of extension cord wiring. You also cut fire danger and make your home a safer place for your children.

How about the cost—is it satellite-high? No, you can get your home wiring modernized on payments as low as $5 to $10 per month. The exact cost depends on how much wiring you now have and where it is located, but your monthly payments for the job will be low.

JOSEPH MAGNIN

Betty Gets Spring Fever! Broadway Has Sale Fever!

By BETTY

I declare, spring fever has got me and my whole family, but that "fever" has affected those people in the Broadway Center in a different way.

They call it sale fever!

You know me, I can sense a good buy a mile away! Well, I was walking along Broadway thinking about a million things—what to fix that would be easy tonight—when what do you think?

THE GRODIN'S window has most interesting news. They are having their anniversary sale and are featuring wash 'n wear suits.

I checked with Mr. Webster, the Grodin's manager, and he smiled when he said that they could wait until I get hubby there for a fitting! The suits are wonderful — washable, little ironing, just right for summer!

I thought for a while that my young children would get along all right this summer, but they are so active (thank goodness!) that they are for sure going to need some more sports clothes offered at Goldmans.

THE "FEVER" has affected the Goldmans people too, and they are having a big sale during their anniversary event! A pair of pedal pushers on sale stuck my fancy, so you can guess that mama will be up to date too!

Say, did you see those simply miraculous car-coats at Joseph Magnins. The pockets are so big that you can put just about everything in them—Cokes, baseball programs, wrapped hot dogs, the works!

I guess I have the same trouble as all mothers—my boys wear thing out so fast its just about unbelievable! Smiths in Broadway has a solution—I'm getting several of those boys' long-wearing "Boxer Play Shorts" which are priced so low!

THEY ARE OF cotton gabardine or striped ivy denim with a sturdy elastic waist.

Mrs. Watson, a neighbor down the street, was complaining yesterday that her bathroom towels are simply in rags, but I asked her if she hadn't heard of the "towel festival," yes, that's what they're calling it—at Capwell's.

She hadn't, but I put her wise fast enough and she headed straight for Capwell's. They now have sales on three famous patterns, Cannon Ascot Stripe, Callaway Crochet and Cannon Citation. They are so fine, and so inexpensive!

You know, reminders that summer is on the way are everywhere. I dropped in on Mr. and Mrs. Rapport at Kladeze and they were busily unpacking the newest in girls' Catalina swim suits.

AND SANDLES! The little ones can't do without them! And take it from me, really good shoe is featured at Senior's Junior Boot Shop. Those Edwards sandles are top quality and they last longer.

I have always felt that I could get more out of life if I took up the piano, but I was afraid hubby would laugh. He didn't though (bless him!) and when we saw slogan, "Learn to play at Sherman Clay," that did it.

We rented a piano from Sherman Clay and finally decided to buy—its a beautiful instrument. You can't imagine how much fun it is to have a piano in the house. And my lessons are going fine!

I WAS SO surprised when I couldn't find my old favorite — Robert Sawyer's. Sure enough—it was gone. Sawyer's is now located at 1385 East Newell, in new and bigger quarters but with the same friendly service.

And Sawyer's is featuring wonderful silver at such reasonable prices—for brides, and for the established home. And their men's gift shop is something to behold.

A happy fact about being an expectant mother now is that you can get these new "maternity chemise" dresses at the Expectation Shop in Broadway. Mrs. Johnson said her morale soared when she first saw them!

My morale has been soaring too—but I must put most of the praise on those people at Slenderella, where I've been going for nearly two months. Friend husband complimented me almost right away, as the Slenderella people began to slenderize me.

WITH THE MOVIE "South Pacific" coming, we decided to pick up the album at Music Town. We have a whole raft of Music albums. There are many "specials" each week and the savings are terrific.

Don't tell me! You heard about the Kushin's "dyeables," the pointed-toe footwear which can be dyed any color to match your favorite print, dressy cotton, silk or shantung. They are on my list for the next week!

They have worked so hard at Sterlings Furniture Company getting things set right after the flood, and they have really done a job, and have all new carpeting in the basement.

Sterling's is going all out for those new Cohama Complemates, which is a new line of decorating fabrics, featuring the "Four Seasons' Palette."

And you know, I solved my problem of fixing dinner by stopping at the Rite Spot Pizza Bar and Market in Broadway. They have a dozen different kinds of pizza ready to bake and ready for sale. Lots of folks had the same idea, too!

And on the way to my car, I took care of the rest of the week by choosing from the array of frozen foods on special at Lucky Store. These specials are a wonderful way to save money and still get lots of variety.

SUMMER IS ON THE WAY and this couple are all set to bask in the sun at the poolside and at the beach in swimwear now featured at Broadway Shopping Center in Walnut Creek. He's wearing a cabana set with a Cannon terry cloth beach jacket and matching trunks from Smith's. His attractive companion sports a one-piece Catalina suit of Orlon Lastex, available at Joseph Magnin's.

Forget Parking Cares At WC Broadway Center

The one commodity which seems to be at a premium everywhere — parking — is one commodity which is plentiful at the Broadway Shopping Center, Walnut Creek.

"Farseeing Broadway merchants have provided for 1800 parking stalls located conveniently throughout the center," said George Webster, chairman of the Broadway Merchants Association.

They are distributed so that it is a short walk from the car to the store, and a pleasant walk at that — considering the colorful windows and the gay atmosphere of carefree shoppers.

"There is always plenty of room to park, said Webster. "Now and then a lot is filled up, but the other lots always have openings.

"The center is built so compactly that it is a short distance from one end to the other."

Penney's Has Anniversary Celebration

The fifty-sixth anniversary celebration of Penney's, Walnut Creek is emphasizing the "good old days", with display of such "gas light" items as the floor length dreses, derbys, mustaches, and bargains, with old time prices, says manager Clint Newell.

The big event, now under way, will have comparisons of "the old and the new" and an "Attic Hunt" where friends and neighbors have been asked to bring in the old items from their homes—such as antique chairs, photographs, bicycles, dells, and so forth.

Combine our gala anniversary sale and our flood sale and you have one of the most outstanding sale events ever to be offered anywhere, anytime," Newell said.

"Many items which were damaged during the recent flood are being sold at 25 cents on the dollar and there are thousands of dollars in savings to be had while the goods last," he continued.

"Some items only have minor spots on them, but we are selling all items which were in our stock room when the water hit," Newell added.

One of the most prominent crowd pleasers at Penneys during the celebration is the display of a 1907 Maxwell roadster, completely restored to tip-top shape.

Have you ever wondered how Penney's got started. Well, here's the story:

In 1902, James Cash Penney opened a cash-and-carry store in a little frame building in the frontier coal mining town of Kenmerer, Wyo.

THE FIRST IN a chain of over 1690 stores was known as the "Golden Rule Store". Miners hardly knew what to think of the store with such a "high-sounding" name, especially as their trade that could each have done business fittingly under the monicker of "Let The Buyer Beware Store."

Fair dealings with the miners who traded in the new store paid dividends in good will and new business that encouraged Penney to extend his operations.

COHAMA Complemates at Sterling

the most original idea in fabric coordination in home furnishings history

At last, the answer to your decorating dreams! After two years of research, Cohama's staff of artists has created a complementary collection of decorating fabrics that is causing more talk, more clamor, more excitement than anything in the history of home furnishings . . . COHAMA COMPLEMATES. See them featured in both April and May House Beautiful magazine.

For Complemates, Cohama created a completely new color palette . . . the Four Seasons Palette. Here are colors that complement each other . . . solids, prints, stripes, florals, geometrics and plaids that were born to be used together. Over 300 colors and fabrics to choose from. Here are colors that are at home with every decor from traditional to modern . . . colors that embrace every season, that you will love in December as you do in May . . . year after year!

For Complemates, Cohama created completely new textures . . . magnificently co-ordinated from sheerest casements, to draperies, to upholstery fabrics. The sheer print you select for a window will have a go-together upholstery fabric in complete harmony. See Cohama Complemates first at Sterling in the Bay Area . . . be first to discover what an adventure home decorating can be!

Complemates are so modestly priced:

Drapery fabrics from 1.95 to 5.95 a yard

Upholstery fabrics from 4.95 to 7.95 a yard

Male Sportswear Wins Its Place in the Sun

Masculine sportswear has won its place in the Spring sun, chiefly because the American male just loves casual apparel and the boldness, brightness and imaginative styling of new leisurewear has more appeal than ever.

Three-button sports jackets in featherweight fabrics and slim-cut slacks are at the peak of ety of blends as well as 100 per their popularity. Made in a varicent natural fibers, inspired by "University" style features and Carribean colors, the new lines are sure to find an army of admirers.

Much of it comes from the easy-to-wear low-button cardigans that have become such nationwide favorites. The variations on the low-button cardigan theme are almost endless. Washwear fabrics, silk-looks, lightweight knits combined with cut-and-sewn cottons, solid colors, textured fabrics, bold plaids, neat prints—and many, many others are ready to meet the style preferences of the outdoor man.

The Carribean influence is seen in some of the spritely colors and soft pastel shades used. Slubby fabrics with look and feel of silk will be worn alongside tough sailcloths, soft napped lightweight wools and blends of wool with cotton or man-made fibers.

Poplin with its tight wind- and wet-restistant weave is another outdoor favorite. Golfers prefer them with convertible collars that button up high or lay flat.

Car coats of poplin, Bedford cords and gabardines score with fellows who chauffeur the family sedan as well as sports car enthusiasts. Many of the new car coats are in the slightly longer lengths, but there are plenty of shorties for men who prefer the abbriviated models.

A trick in handling foil-wrapped vegetables while camping, is to roll them up and to twist the foil ends. The little handles thus made help in turning and moving the food.

Broadway Stores Remain Open Friday Nights

Stores in the Broadway Shopping Center, Walnut Creek, are open Friday nights for the convenience of families and persons who cannot find the time to shop during the day.

Merchants have also discovered that many families get a great deal of fun and pleasure out of visiting the stores together.

WORD TO THE WISE GARDENER

Have you ever put off completing your garden or refurbishing an old one because of the cost involved? If the answer is "yes," then you should know about our 90-Day Budget Plan.

This plan enables you to enjoy a major garden project at once, while spreading the cost over a period of 90 days. Here is how it works: if you buy all the requirements for a sizable lawn this week, for example, on our budget plan you will pay one-third of the total cost in May, one-third in June and the balance in July. No interest or carrying charges.

Our people can tell you everything you need to know to plant and look after a carefree garden. They recommend Sunshine Peat Moss (pure Canadian) for successful new lawn insurance and Ortho's Isotox and Malathion for all around bug control.
